Tzur Yisrael (Rock of Israel), speaking to the people at the fourth installation of the October 2020 seven-day revival hosted by Chaplain Andy Bass of Chaplain's Corner, "Rabbi Sha'ul (Paul) says, 'Always be humble, gentle and patient, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.'" (see pg 7)

Sectarianism is Sin

By: R. D. Hempton

"In the church at Corinth," said Pastor James

Pastor James Loyless the Apostle

Loyless the Apostle of Aliento de Vida, "Paul saw some major problems. I Cor 1:10-16, 'I follow Paul, I follow Apollos, or I follow Kefa (Peter) or I follow Christ.' The church was in a sad state and fixin' to collapse. They had power struggles, grumbling, gossiping and complaining. When a believer comes against another believer, it is a sign of this kind of thing. Paul pointed out that a divided church will not last. (see pg 9)

It stems from a whole night spent in prayer in 2011 by Pastor Russell Page of Kingdom Realm, who said God showed him a seven-day revival at seven different churches. (see pg 15)

On Prayer 90 Call to Prayer (Part Three)

By: Mozelle Davis-Weeks

The key to answered prayer is seen in Yeshua's discourse on the true (real) vine of John chapter 15: "I am the true vine, and my father is the vinedresser. Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean through the word I have spoken to you. Abide (remain) in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides (remains) in the vine, neither can you unless you abide (remain) in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, it is he that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide (remain) in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire and burned. If you abide in me and my words abide (remain) in you, ask what ever you wish, and it will be done for you" (John 15:1-7 ESV).

Please do not miss how the Lord emphasizes his words abiding in us (remaining in our hearts) as a prerequisite to answered prayer (If you abide in me and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish and it will be done for you). We cannot overemphasize this truth. It is absolutely essential for effective prayer. We must program ourselves to abide in Messiah and to have his words abide in us.

Abide in Yeshua and have his words abide in you; then you will ask what you will and it will be done.

Garden of Life

"Smith," Jerry said chuckling. My name is Jerry Smith."

"Wow," Henry added. "After all this time, I also never thought to ask you what your last name was. I mean, here you are, for the past several months, thoughtfully and lovingly becoming a true friend to my family, yet I never bothered to ask you what your last name was. I can't even believe that. What was I thinking?"

"No worries, folks," Jerry said. "My last name isn't important. Jesus is who is important. All of the rest are just details."

After a few moments of silence, Megan asked, "Hey Momma, do you mind if we go feed the ducks on the other side of the pond? They look lonely over there."

"Sure thing, Sweetie," Helen said. "We'll be back in a bit, boys."

Henry kissed Helen, then Megan. "See y'all in a minute," he said.

Both ladies wandered off.

Before Henry could say a word, Jerry declared, "It's time."

"Good," Henry said. "I'm actually ready for you this month."

"Oh?"

"Yes indeed. I picked out a verse last week that I wanted to discuss with you during our next chat. So in the spirit of what that famous boxing announcer says, 'let's get ready to rumble!'"

Jerry laughed. "I can see you're still being a little ornery about our faith discussions, but that's fine with me."

Henry grinned and shrugged.

"Anyway," Jerry continued. "Before I announce our parable this month, I'll just wait to hear what you have to say. Please proceed."

"I recently picked out a verse that I feel will show I'm not such a bad person after all." Henry pulled out an index card from his wallet and read. "It's in I Timothy 5:8. 'Anyone who does not provide for their relatives, and especially for their own household, has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.'"

Tender Love

By: Jody Bennett

In Jinja, Uganda is the Tender Love Orphanage administered by Mr. Dominic Muggaga. There

Mr. Dominic Muggaga director of Tender Love are precious few people in the alliance who help support these children. The Battlefield News brings you closer to some of those children and urges you to call the Battlefield News if you will do even the smallest thing to help them – (706)499-7976. There are things that may be junk to you, things you would give to the Goodwill, which, by the way, is not even a nonprofit organization any more, things you might even throw away, that would not be junk to them. There is a container at Unity on a

Mrs. Rachael Muggaga director of Tender Love Mission where you can bring those things that we may send to these children. It will not be there much longer, however, as we must send it. Act now, please.

There are many orphaned children at the Tender Love Orphanage in Jinja, Uganda. The director of the orphanage, at our request has sent us profiles on some of the children.

Kigenyi Fahad

Fahad's hobby is dancing, he likes to play football and he aspires to be a designer. He is 17 years-old, his birthday being 19 May 2003, and he is in primary six.

In Fahad's early life, he lost his father to alcohol poisoning, leaving behind a helpless family under the care of their mother, who was a simple housewife. We met Fahad in our community outreaches and realized he was not going to school as other children do. He led us to their small house and the mother confided in us about the bad state of their lives. Tender Love took in Fahad and he is a bright promising child doing well in school.

All Lives Matter (Part Two)

By: Cameron Webb

Battlefield News Note: In the October Issue we published a letter from an incarcerated brother in Christ. The following is the second part of a teaching he presented to other believing inmates at Walker State Prison.

We all know God is love (I John 4:8) and merciful, gracious and kind toward mankind even after its fall with Adam and Khawaw (Eve). He tells us this and has shown us throughout the ages.

Ps 145:9 says, "The Lord is good to all and his tender mercies are over all his works" (KJV).

Rom 5:8 says, "God demonstrates his own love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us" (NIV)

John 3:16-17 says, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send his son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved" (NKJV)

Acts 10:34-35 says, "Then Kefa (Peter) addressed them: 'I now understand that God does not play favorites, but that whoever fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him, no matter what people he belongs to'" (CJB).

Let's look at the parable of the "good Samaritan."

"And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him (Yeshua) to the test, saying, 'Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?' He (Jesus) said to him (the lawyer), 'What is written in the law?' What is your reading of it?' And he (the lawyer) answered, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.' And he (the Lord) said to him (the lawyer), 'You have answered correctly; do this and you will live.'

But he (the lawyer), desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, 'And who is my neighbor?' Jesus replied, 'A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him (the injured man), he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him (the injured man), passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he (the injured man) was, and when he (the Samaritan) saw him, he had compassion. He (the Samaritan) went to him (the injured man) and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him (injured man) on his (Samaritan) own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the inn keeper, saying, "take care of him and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back." Which of these three do you think proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers? He (the lawyer) said, "The one who showed him mercy." And Jesus said to him, "You go, and do likewise" (Luke 10:25-37 ESV).

Now in the parable we see a human being that's been robbed, beaten and left for dead. Some passed by without helping or even acknowledging the man. We know this because they walked on the other side of the road. Can you imagine what it is like to be down and in a really bad situation like this man and no one cares enough to stop even to help save your life? Most people would not want to be left for dead I believe we all would hope to have a Good Samaritan on deck in a crisis of this nature. In Mark 12: 29-31, when Jesus was asked the greatest commandment, he answered, "'Sh'mah (hear - Deut 6:4) oh Israel, the Lord your God is one God. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these" (NAB). No matter the race, color or religion of someone, I would hope that we all would operate in the spirit the Great Commandment speaks about.

Is there Enough Evidence?

If it were illegal, could you be convicted of it? Is there enough evidence against you for you to be convicted? We have all heard stories about people who go to church and consider themselves to be Christians, but outside church, no one would suspect they were Christians. A friend once asked me if there was enough evidence to convict me of being a Christian. I had never heard it put that way before, but it made me become very honest with myself. Was there enough evidence?

"We have all seen that being in unity, real unity, being and acting like we are all one body – the body of Christ – is what the Lord wants, prayed for and has told us to accomplish. The rest of the Christian World do not seem to know this, but we in the Whole Body of Christ Alliance know it well. We have been saying it to each other since 2010.

I want to ask all of you in the same way it was presented to me: if working to unite the body of Christ were illegal, let us say a capital crime, would there be enough evidence to convict you of it? Is there enough evidence to convict any of us of it? When I am honest with myself, I must answer a "no" to this question, almost every one of us must answer the question in the same way. I thank and praise God that not everyone in this alliance, however, can answer this question in the negative. If I used the fingers of both hands, however, I could count those that would definitely have to hire a defense attorney because they have been caught red-handed working to unite the body of Christ.

I am the pastor of a church, work a full-time job, I serve on the board of directors of the WBCA, am a husband and a father, and more. I am quite busy. I say this because, undoubtedly, there are those that would answer that they are too busy to actually do the work that must be done to unite the body. I promise you, you are not busier than I. I have actually heard one pastor say, "We are united." Look around you, people. It does not require a genius to see that that statement is a lie.

I have decided to make a commitment. I have decided to endeavor to create the evidence against myself. I want there to be enough evidence to convict me of working to bring about unity in the body of Christ. After all, that is one of the requirements for being part of the alliance – that we be willing to do the work to bring this about. I am making the commitment to actually do the work; not just talk about it. If doing the work becomes a capital crime, I want there to be enough evidence to convict me.

This is the part where I ask you to put your action where your mouth is and make this commitment with me. It does not matter if you do not know how (I don't really believe that anyway), I am going to tell you all you need to know, but you will have to get up off the couch, you will have to turn off the television, you will have to get up off your pew and actually take action – You!

There are many who speak in public of things and people, and say, "I'm not going to name any names..." Well, I have a reputation, along with Pastor Michael Smith and a very few others of naming names. I am about to do that now. I am going to volunteer the entire board of directors, including myself to be available to you to tell you what you can do. If you do not know what to do, one of these people will help you, but you must actually pick up the telephone and call one of us.

YOU MUST DO IT!

We have recently had a resignation, but these are those still on the board and their telephone numbers:

Linda Gunter telling about meeting Jody
"In 2018 the children's choir sang at a trucking company which was also a street ministry. I thought, 'Why, Lord?' Fast forward: In 2020 we were trying to open a hospital in Haiti. We needed to ship medical supplies, which meant we needed a shipping container. I could not get any of that together. My assistant, Lisa Welshman, said, 'What about Jody? She has a trucking company right?'"
"I called Jody and asked her if it was something that was even possible for her to do. She said, 'Yes.'"

Jody continued the story

"I said yes because that's what we do. We usually ship heavy equipment overseas, shipping a container of medical supplies would be a piece of cake. I had not, however, taken into consideration all the spiritual warfare we had to undergo (see Battlefield News July & September 2020). One thing I did know was that the Lord had already orchestrated it."

Those who finally worked until they almost dropped

The arrival of the 40 foot K-line shipping container empty

Final items going into the container with zero space remaining, packed top to bottom, left to right.

Linda went on

"The other reason we opened the hospital was for spiritual healing. We were dealing with Voodoo and everything else. We said we would do it, and not only did Satan hear us, but everyone else there knew that's what we wanted to do. In the supernatural the forces of darkness did not want it to happen."

Signs of Voodoo, the most prominent religion in Haiti

No they are not zombies or vampires exactly; they are people who seek power through the worship of foreign gods (demons). This is a photograph of one of the ceremonies performed at night to the beat of the drums.

Jody filled in more of the story

"After all the prayer and spiritual warfare, it ultimately was one of the easiest trucking projects. It went very smoothly with no hold-ups on customs. It was really quite amazing how quickly the shipping container arrived in Haiti, especially considering it all happened during the Covid and everything. They were able to get the hospital done sooner. We had a lot of opposition, but when we got out of there, the feeling that we had when we heard was fantastic. All of us in the office jumped up and down. We were very excited. We get excited about some completed deliveries, but we don't ever get that excited."

I thought he meant he was coming home from the hospital. He went to his heavenly home." Jeremiah Parks has ministered to people of the Whole Body of Christ Alliance at multiple events, from revivals, to Unity Day to coffee houses. His mime always moves people.

Jeremiah Parks

Jeremiah draped in a French Flag

The word "mime" comes from the Greek "mimos." It means an actor or performer who represents and action, mood or character by means of gestures and actions rather than words. To mime is to engage in such a representation. Jeremiah Parks is indeed a mime because he portrays a range of actions and emotions representing the worship and adoration of the God.

Dianne Marie Conner and Pastor Mary Tate are prayer partners.

Ms Mary prophesied over Jeremiah

Jeremiah Parks, after finishing his mime performance, received freedom in the spirit. God was doing a work on and in him. Pastor Mary also performed a mime of sorts over this prophetic mime in worshipping God with her flag and allowing God to give Jeremiah a word through Ms Mary.

Perry House shared his testimony and sang.

Ms Thelma Mooney shared her testimony. Ms Thelma Mooney shared her testimony. When she broke her arm, God miraculously healed it so quickly that it was almost unbelievable. "I love my God," Ms Thelma stated. "He means everything to me."

The minister Carol Lawrence introduced the main speaker, Pastor Tisa Pass the apostle. "We need a move," she began. I Pet 2:9 says, 'But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God' (NIV). Faith in Christ is what makes each of you equal to each other. Gal 3:27-28 says, 'For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free person, there is not male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus' (NAB). God is no respecter of persons.

Pastor Tisa exhibits contempt for ungodliness & injustice.

“Women, I want you to know, a man may say, ‘You are worthless,’ but God says, ‘...a virtuous woman? Her price is far above rubies. (Prov 31:10, KJV). A man may say, ‘You are ugly,’ but God says you were created in his image (Gen 1:27). A man may tell you that you are weak, but God says, ‘My grace is sufficient for you, for my strength is made perfect in weakness’ (II Cor 12:9, NKJV). A man may say you can’t, but the Bible says, ‘I can do all things through him who gives me power’ (Phil 4:13, JNT). A man wants you to worship him, but God says, ‘You are to have no other gods before me’ (Ex 20:3, CJB). A man tell you, ‘I don’t love you,’ but God loved you so much that he gave his only begotten son for you (John 3:16). Whenever a man tries to push, pull, block or drag you down, just remember God can push, pull, block and rebuke much better, and he can (and will) carry you out.”

An incredible time was had by all at the Be-your-own-beautiful-you women’s meeting. Christ was truly in the house.

Can’t Throw People Away

“I got into a tussle with my sister a while back and I made the statement, ‘I don’t need her.’ My mother told me, ‘You can’t just throw people away.’

“In the body of Christ we do that all the time. We are so quick to sever relationships. When our world views don’t match up (and sooner or later they won’t), we discard each other. This is so deeply saddening to our Messiah. Disagreement and conflict without the glue of peace can become strife, then alienation. We can change a brother into a stranger.

Pastor Mary Tate of House of Hope spoke on unity in the body of Christ.

“Illustrations of this are always bad examples, but look at what happened in Rwanda in the 90s between the Hutus and the Tutsis. They were the same race, but they were put against each other and between 500 and 800 thousand Tutsis were murdered while the local media fanned the flames. The same thing happened in Nazi Germany.

“When someone is on their death bed, they’re not concerned about their possessions, but their legacy, people they spent their life investing in. In Gen 15:12-16, God told Abram his descendants would go through some things, but he told Abram he would have shalom (peace). There was contention between brothers: Yitzchak (Isaac) and Yishma’el (Ishmael), between Ya’akov (Jacob) and Esav (Esau). There was contention between Leah and Rachel as well as 11 brothers and Yosef (Joseph). Did Abraham do it differently? Yes, Abraham split with Lot in a contentious situation, but chose peace, and so God rewarded him with peace. In Gen 13:8 they parted peacefully.

Pastor Chuck Black of New Town Baptist Church read Eph 4:1-6.

“If you are in the body of Christ, you have a calling. It may be preaching; it may be cleaning. It doesn’t just happen by itself, we have to work it. We have to carry it out and operate in our calling. Spiritual unity is a must in the church.” (see pg 8)

The Whole Body of Christ Alliance

is a body of believers from many Christian congregations, denominations, and ministries that work together for unity in the body of Christ; not all under one pastor, but as individual organ systems in a single body. We seek unity in the body of Christ, not one world religion. As the Bible instructs us, we are to work together synergistically, not against each other, nor are we to be independent of one another. No organ functioning on its own will survive very long.

If you wish to have an article published in the BATTLEFIELD NEWS or have a comment on anything you read in it, contact us. Your article may be published. Be sure to keep a copy of it since it will not be returned to you. Nor will you receive any financial compensation for it.

Most things in this 117th edition are not copyrighted materials. All ministries are encouraged to reproduce all or any part of it for God’s purposes.

If the WBCA has not contacted your church or pastor, and your body of believers would be included, we will get to your church eventually, but don't wait until next year. The Lord may come for his bride before that. Contact us. Those who stand with the WBCA don't make the mistake of believing that to be in unity, we must never disagree on anything. You do not see that even in nuclear families. Nor do we make the mistake of thinking we must all believe exactly the same thing. That will never happen.

We believe that there are eight principles that must be considered when establishing sound doctrine and criterion for unity. There may be a few more, but definitely not less nor significantly more, other wise we border on works of the law, rather than works of faith. They are:

- 1: Humans are born with a sin nature; all have sinned and without Christ, are worthy of hell, not fit for heaven.
- 2: Yeshua (Jesus) is the messiah, the spotless Lamb of God, and in fact, is God himself, the second member of the Godhead, not a second God: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit.
- 3: Christ the Messiah was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of a virgin (Miriam also called Mary, and sinless).
- 4: Jesus (Yeshua) died on the cross for your sins and mine.
- 5: Almighty God the Father raised Messiah (Jesus) from the dead on the third day.
- 6: Christ will return for his bride at the appointed time of the Father.
- 7: The Holy Bible is completely trustworthy, for it is inspired by the Holy Spirit.
- 8: Blatant sin (living in sin) is intolerable and the Community of Messiah (Church) must not tolerate it from its own.

Can't Throw People Away

(from pg 7)

Rabbanit Kim Otero was the keynote speaker.

Amy Bass, First Lady of Chaplain's Corner, initiated and prayed over the love offering for the main speaker. (see pg 8)

Pastor Russell Page of Kingdom Realm was the closing speaker.

"In Mal 2:10 the prophet says we have been faithless to one another and profaned the covenant. We are supposed to be the people of the covenant. Abraham understood the connection between the covenant and the power of strife within the brotherhood. Without the bond of peace, there is no blessing.

"In Eph 4:3 we have seen the phrase, 'unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.' In Greek the word is 'sundesmos' (soon-dess-mos), Ligament, uniting principle, control, bond; also Sundaos(soon-dah-oh), bond, as in bondage. Paul talked about being a prisoner of the Lord. He's talking about being chained together. When Paul says we should 'preserve the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace,' he is saying that the Ruakh Hakodesh (Holy Spirit) is the chain by which we are bound together as one people (am ehad), serving the Lord faithfully. We divide the unity of the Lord when we are in disunity.

We break those bonds of peace when we declare with our words, actions, thoughts or feelings that we don't want to be bound together with our brothers and sisters in unity.

“Deut 32:30 talks about one chasing a thousand and two chasing 2000. Right? No, one chases a thousand and two put 10,000 to flight. The Spirit of God is a spirit of multiplication. When two people are bound together with one purpose, they can accomplish ten-fold for the Kingdom of Heaven. The devil knows this. That’s why he works to decrease unity.

Pastor Russell called up Troy Fletcher when the altar was opened.

Cornelius Morkeh, the prophet from Christ the King prayed over Troy

Pastor Russell and Cornelius pray over Pamela Harrison

Pastor Mary is prayed over

“If we are not seeing the results we wanna see, but just running in place, maybe somewhere along the way we broke the bond of peace, maybe got nit-picky. The definition of success must be what the Lord says, not what man says it is. Forget the mega-church mindset. Pastors and leaders sometimes treat their church like that. They may have a need for control (‘I wanna do it my way’) or power (‘This is my house; I’ll do as I please’), or autonomy (‘I can do this myself ‘), or self-importance (‘If you want something done right...’). When this happens, our need for control, power, autonomy and self-importance has overshadowed our willingness to share, serve alongside and enjoin ourselves to others. When our arrogance outweighs God’s fruitfulness in the spirit of multiplication, we are out of order.

Junior Harrison shared his testimony

Prayer over James Hallan

“I am not saying we should link arms with idol-worshippers, but that we should ‘come and reason together.’ We need to respond to one another with words dipped in honey. This is a Deborah anointing. She did not rule with an iron fist. Her words were dipped in honey because the Lord wants to be able to say, ‘Taste and see that the Lord is good.’

“Never deliver a message that God has not spoken to your heart. The church would be so much easier if we didn’t have to deal with people. Right? God placed people in our lives. You may say, ‘I am not a people person, but we are all people persons. Y’all think for a second about that one who is a pebble in your shoe. You know who they are. God placed them there to grow you. You are not as important as the whole body.

“My favorite name for Messiah is ‘Repairer of the Breach.’ It is because Yeshua loves God and loves people and that’s the whole thing. This country is divided, but we know the repairer of the breach. We need to want to be in right relation with all people. We live in such a contentious environment that’s what makes the difference is us. Keep the peace.”

Sectarianism is Sin

“In all of this, Paul still had joy. How is that possible? Paul exhorted them to stop gossiping and attacking one another. Don’t use your tongue for dissention, but for the gospel.

Dr Joseph Essiful-Ansah, pastor of Christ the King was MC

Neyda Hempton, First Lady of the alliance opened the service in prayer.

“Our union is to be inside us too, not just in coming and sitting together. We must be in one mind, in one accord. This is how the Holy Ghost showed up in Acts Chapter two. We need the men of God to stand up and pull this nation back together. For this we must be united, not in hundreds of denominations separated.

“At Corinth the preachers preached the same message (Paul, Apollos and Peter), but the styles were different. I am not for everybody, but I am for somebody. We see from Acts 18:24, II Cor 10:10 and II Cor 11:6 that, even though Paul was highly educated, he was not a great speaker, but he was a gifted administrator. We know now that we can’t just come up and quote scripture; we need order in our country’s government. Who will bring it? The church! After this election, we are going to see many things turned upside down and the church is not ready for what is coming to America. How many lives are we touching out in the street? The church should be expanding.

Lydia Mohorea of House of Prayer testified to the goodness of God as she and her family escaped a Socialist Country.

Just before communion, Pastor Dale tunnel prayed, thanking God for the freedom we still have (for now) in America.

“Kefa’s (Peter’s) emphasis was on the rituals and traditions because he was the apostle to the Jews. Peter and Paul had conflict, but they came together for the cause of Christ. Being in unity does not mean we agree on everything. That is not unity; that is uniformity.

David Lyles the minister from Victory Deliverance Center spoke on unity in the body of Christ.

Kelly Lyles of Victory Deliverance read I Cor 12:12-14.

Ms Else Diaz of Aliento de Vida translated as the First Lady of Aliento de Vida, Rosa Loyless conducted the Battlefield News offering in Spanish.

Herman Parks the Bible Teacher from the Alternative View conducted communion.

Pastor Tony Bertsch, youth pastor of Arcade Congregational Holiness Church conducted the love offering for the main speaker.

“The Corinthians felt so advanced that they began to judge the wise and the unwise, as well as the gifted. That was a problem.

“There are eight things we can do to put unity back into the body:

1: Eph 4:2, unity requires humility. We must be willing to sacrifice our ego for others.

2: We must be gentle. A gentle person has the ability to deal with chaos. It’s easier to just leave a church and start your own church. Many churches are begun out of rebellion.

3: We must be patient with each other.

4: We must be understanding, but not ignore the situation – balancing. Rom 5:20, people who are sinful will let you down because they have not gained enough integrity. What kind of people of God are we if our brother sins and we say nothing? We can say, ‘You don’t have to do that.’ You can make all kinds of appointments and cancel them, but there is one appointment with the judgment of the Lord that you cannot cancel.

5: Don’t expect perfection out of your church family. There are people there that you may not want to be around, but everyone is at a different level of maturity. Even at the gas station you have three levels of gas quality. Look at Eph 4:4.

6: We should celebrate. We should each not only use the gifts God has given us to minister to the other members of the body, but we should celebrate the special gifts God has given others.

7: We must follow those with leadership gifts. Eph 4:11 says, ‘He gave some as apostles, others as prophets, others as evangelists, others as pastors and teachers’ (NAB). They are responsible for building up the ministry, the church, the community of Messiah, which includes working for unity in the body of Christ. Why would you follow a leader that does not follow Christ, does not work for unity?

8: We must speak the truth in love. You are growing to be more and more like Christ every day. When you say it, say it out of love, not agitation.

Rabbi David Otero was closing speaker and closed with the Aharonic Blessing from Numbers 6.

“God helps us grow and we must endeavor to keep the unity of the church. People accomplish far more together than they do when they are competing with one another. Satan is not out there drinking and smoking weed on Saturday and Sunday; he’s in church. Satan is not our friend. We do not want to make him happy because of our stupidity. There are many churches that can’t open because of what is going on. We have one another’s backs.”

A Made-up Mind

“When we ask the Lord to come in, no matter whether we are saved or not, we have to be taught to live for him. God created and called us to be there for one another. There ought to be evidence that we are in unity. Rom 12:3 says we are to be transformed. If a computer is set to perform a particular group of tasks, if you want it to do some other things, it must be reprogrammed. We are to be reprogrammed, transformed. God says in his word, ‘They are to all be taught about me.’ He shows us what pleases him and what displeases him. If we know this, we can get a made-up mind. Look at it like Jesus did; he knew his mission and he had a made-up mind to take it all the way to the end. Too often we wanna do what we feel is right. Prov 14:12 says there is a way that seems right to man, but the end of it is death.’ What pleases God is for us to do it his way, not ours.

Pastor Michael Smith of Victory Deliverance hosted the revival and was Master of Ceremonies.

Pastor Howard Jackson of New Deliverance opened the service in prayer.

Willy Lawrence of the UCGC Praise Team on the keyboard with...

...Rico Knight on Drums and Carlos Eubanks. Together they brought the worship music all the way from Alabama.

People in worship

“No matter how long we live, we will never know everything in the word of God. It is more important to live according to the word. To live in peace, harmony and unity, we have to have the mind of Christ. He said he does what he sees the Father doing. Phil 2:5 (KJV) says, ‘Let this mind be in you that was also in Christ Jesus.’ From the moment man messed up, God started coming up with a plan. It was justified, infallible, and had no loopholes. We ought to live that justified life.

In worship

Lydia Mohorea of House of Prayer testified about having escaped from a Socialist country and what Socialism really is.

Dr John Radu prayed for our country

The reverend James Mays of Sons of Light spoke about unity in the body of Christ.

Secretary Jody Bennett of WBCA conducted the Battlefield News Offering

“I don’t have to give account for what people do to me, but for what I do to people. If God treated us like we treat people, where would we be?”

“If we come together in unity, there is power. And Mat 18:19 says, ‘If two of you agree on Earth about anything you ask for, it will be done for you by my Father in Heaven’ (NIV). If we are not in unity, he will not be there.

“We are servants. When Jesus was here, he was a servant. We need to be more like Jesus. He gave us instructions to be in unity. So if we follow the blue prints, we will be in unity and accomplish what he prayed for. We just need to get a made-up mind like Christ.

Pastor Larry Percifield of Leap of Faith read I Cor 12:4-12.

“We all work together, working for Christ.”

“In the garden at Gat-sh’manim (Gethsemane), Jesus had a made-up mind. Those who stumble do not have a made-up mind. Jesus told us that no man takes his life, but that he lays it down and takes it up again. He had a made-up mind. He was crucified, placed in a tomb and rose on

Little Havel (Abel) Stroup

“Moshe had the rod of God in his hands. Today our rod is the Bible. As long as we are holding up those two hands (the right hand of wearing the robe of the righteousness of God and the left being staying in unity with each other) we will prevail. Hold up those hands.

“Moses was the leader of the people, but he still needed help. Hold up those hands. Get rid of those isms and schisms. As long as we stay together in godly unity, we can go into the devil’s territory and take back what he took from us. When the devil takes your loved ones, you can go take them back because you have Jesus in you and greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world.

Secretary Jody Bennett spoke about the ministries supported by the WBCA overseas: BCM, the Father’s Heart and the others in Brazil, Tender Love in Uganda and LHLT in Haiti and the Ukraine.

Greg Brockman, author and former board member of WBCA, spoke on unity in the body of Christ.

means: how can two travel together unless they have agreed to travel together? Peter and Paul did not always agree, in fact, they almost got into a fist fight.

“We are not gonna agree about everything. We must be in agreement with who we serve. Whether or not I believe in women pastors has nothing to do with whether I am saved. When Jesus died he said, ‘It is finished.’ It is finished for black and for white, for Catholics, Jews and Baptists. Paul addressed that racial nonsense. It does not matter about circumcision or denomination. Honey, if you think your denomination is gonna take you anywhere, it is not; only Jesus will do that. He is all to us: mother, brother, doctor, lawyer, all. He listens and won’t tell anybody. God is no respecter of persons. People hear that and think it means he treats everybody the same. It does not mean that, because he does not treat every one the same we are not the same and he knows us better than we do. It means he does not recognize social-economic status or color or the thing man recognizes. He will give no special favors to senators, presidents or kings, no special treatment to actors, singers or NFL players. He is no respecter of persons.

God will take a nobody and make them into somebody and he will take him that thinks he is something and show him that he is not. Your mama could be a prostitute and your daddy a drug addict, but it doesn’t matter because you have Jesus. We are on the same team. There is no room for, no time for division in the body of Christ. People have fallen by the wayside because the devil whispered to them that so-and-so does not like them or that the other one thinks he is something. It’s not the man you see that did it. It’s the devil behind the man who did it.

“God is calling on us to make the difference. It’s not the mega-church that is gonna make that difference; it’s the little church that stands in the gap.

“See this? Two can pull me. When we get together, we can pull the devil out of the church. Some of us have to repent. We have unforgiveness because we’ve been hurt. We have pain and resentment. We must repent. Let go of it tonight.

“In Luke 7:36-39 a woman who was a sinner wept on the feet of Jesus, dried them with her hair, kissed them and anointed them with spikenard, a very expensive perfume. This story is told in every one of the four gospels. I have heard people say that this woman was Mary Magdalene. It was not. John 11:2 tells you exactly who it was. I have heard people say that this woman was a prostitute. The Bible does not say that, it only says she was a sinner. No one says that a man who is called a sinner was a prostitute. I have even heard people say that Mary Magdalene was a prostitute. Again, nowhere in the Bible does it even suggest that. Mary Magdalene was not a prostitute. The only thing it says is that Jesus cast seven demons out of her.

“Think of the love this woman showed, to have kissed Jesus’ feet constantly and anoint them with such expensive perfume. Mark 14:3 tells us it was Spikenard, a perfume only the wealthy could afford.

It was not Mary Magdalene, it was not a prostitute. It was Mary the sister of Lazarus in the house of Simon the leper spoken about in chapter eight of Matthew.

Starr Phipps performed next.

Dr Cornelius Morkeh and Pastor Joseph Essiful-Ansah of Christ the King

“Ps 96 says to sing a new song. We are rehearsing for Heaven. If you will not sing, you will not be there. Mr. Trump will win the election. There is nothing you can do about it. It does not matter what the ‘polls’ say or what CNN says, it is ordained by God.”

The reverend James Mays was the final performer of the event.

Signs and Wonders

Craig Parker has opened a brand new Christian gift store at 32 North Sage Street in Toccoa 30577. Proceeds go to help Allegiance Ministries. Signs and Wonders is open Wednesday to Saturday 1000 to 1700 (5pm). Call (706)282-9833.

Ms Mary's House of Hope

Ms Mary does need our help. She refuses to allow the government to fund her because she knows that they would mandate that Jesus be discluded from every thing just like they do in the schools and everything else they fund. Please, call Ms Mary and volunteer your times and/or funds. That number to call is (678)235-1361. Ms Mary's House of Hope is a 501(c) 3 organization and all donations are completely tax deductible.

We all know and love Rock. She is the reverend Dr Roxanne (Rock) Shunk, Pastor of Unity on a Mission and member of the board of directors (Secretary of Ministries) of the Whole Body of Christ Alliance. She has written a book, actually it is the first volume of several books. It is entitled Farm to Table: Keep on Truckin' and the first volume is Growing up.

Keep on Truckin' is available through the battlefield News. Contact us for you copy and let's support our sister.

Let's support Building
Christian Ministries

We in the Whole Body of Christ Alliance have, as most people know, a monthly publication. It is called the Battlefield News One Army. In it you can read about some of the very worthy ministries around the world and in our own country that we, as an alliance support. One of those is a ministry that has been featured in BFN many times. It is BCM (Building Christian Ministries) based in Blairsville, Georgia. Philip Abernathy has attended and spoken at many 7-day revivals. Under the umbrella of BCM are several worthy ministries, including the homeless ministry in based in Blairsville and The Father's Heart, the ministry in Brazil that rescues children from sexual abuse and trafficking. Brazil is one of the worst places in the world for sex trafficking and some of the stories we have heard from there at the 7-day revivals would make you cringe. Help these kids and homeless Americans. Donate to BCM by texting 26989.BCM. It will take you a website for a one-time donation or a round-up.

Biblical Knowledge

By: Mateo Raza

Let us begin with the answers to the November questions:

The Company of Emissaries

1: Paul. Acts 20:7-12

2: Kefa (Peter). Gal 2:11-21. In Gal 2:21 Paul said, "I do not nullify the grace of God, for if righteousness were through the law, then Christ died for no purpose." He was not saying not to obey the law; he was saying that you cannot get into the kingdom of God just by obeying the law, that simply obeying the law does not equate with righteousness. Although there are people that claim they never sin (disobey the law), I know that I have the decency not to believe them, because if they could actually live a sinless life, then Yeshua died for nothing.

3: Kefa (Peter). John 21:15-19

Teacher: Moses needed someone to hold up his hands and he had Aaron and Hur.

Boy: Who?

Teacher: Who what?

Boy: Who held up the hands of Moses in the battle?

Teacher: Aaron and Hur

Boy: Who?

Teacher: What do you mean, 'who'?

Boy: Who held up the hands of Moses?

Teacher: I told you it was Aaron and Hur.

Boy: Yeah, but what was her name?

Teacher: What was whose name?

Boy: What was the name of the lady who helped Aaron hold up the hands of Moses?

Teacher: There was no lady helping Aaron. It was a man helping him.

Boy: who was he?

Teacher: He was Hur.

Boy: He was a she?

Teacher: No, that was not done in those days; his name was Hur.

Boy: Who?

Teacher: Today would've been a good day to call in sick.

4: Paul. Acts 17:16-34

5: Shim'on Kefa (Simon Peter). Acts 10:9-16

6: Pete and his brother Andy (Simon Peter and Andrew)

7: Yochanan Ben-Zavdai (John son of Zebedee) Mark 9:38

How do we know that when the apostles were in Jerusalem that they drove a Honda?

We know because the book of Acts says they were all in one Accord.

And now for the December questions:

The Company of Emissaries

1: Who did Yeshua (Jesus) take with him to Gat-sh'manim (Gethsemane)?

2: Who expressed dismay over how to feed the 5000?

3: What Greek silversmith had a beef with Paul over the goddess Artemis?

4: In the story of the feeding of the 5000 one of the 12 brought to Yeshua a boy with the loaves and fish. Who was this disciple?

5: How many fish and how many loaves of bread were there?

6: Who was reluctant to have Jesus wash his feet?

7: Who was bitten by a viper on the island of Malta?

8: What brother of Yeshua does Paul call an apostle?

9: What young friend of Paul and one of the co-authors of I Thessalonians was an apostle?

10: Who, according to the writings of Roman historians Tacitus and Flavius Josephus, lived to a ripe old age after surviving an attempt by Emperor Domitian to boil him in oil?

Goze estos hasta la proxima vez (enjoy until next time).
