On Prayer 92 Call to Prayer (Part Four)

By: Mozelle Davis-Weeks

It is my aim to help the reader of Battlefield News with some prayers aimed at the needs of post-modern people in our fast-paced, anxiety-ridden time. It is my desire to bring these things to followers of Jesus Christ via key thoughts, key scriptures and faith-building prayers based on the word of God, as well as other scriptures that give solid, concrete answers to life's dilemmas.

These prayers, for the most part, are about the things we share as humans who want to follow the Messiah. Their main focus is on spiritual growth, victory over personal problems and ministry to others. These are matters of great concern to our Heavenly Father as well as to us. Beyond building familiarity with the scriptures, these prayers are aimed at helping the follower of Yeshua to know Adonai (The Lord), since to know him is life eternal.

It is my aim to show you scriptures that, when you are lonely, bring the comfort of the Holy Spirit. They impart hope to those who are experiencing despair and grief.

God has promised that his word will not return to him void: "so is my word that goes out of my mouth (rhema) – it will not return to me unfulfilled; but it will accomplish what I intend, and cause to succeed what I sent it to do" (Is 54:11 CJB).

When we return God's word to him through prayer, we receive his answers because the word of God is: "Quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart" (Heb 4:12 KJV). For those readers whose Middle English is somewhat rusty, I quote from a more modern English version: "See the word of God is alive! It is at work and is sharper than any double-edged sword – it cuts right through to where soul meets spirit and joints meet marrow, and it is quick to judge the inner reflections and attitudes of the heart" (Heb 4:12 JNT). As we learn to pray the word of God, our Creator will reveal the motives of our hearts to us and we learn how to pray within his will. God promises that his word will accomplish his will in our lives.

"Mere intellectual study of the word of God is not enough; there must be meditation upon it. The word of God must be revolved over and over in the mind with a constant looking to God and his Spirit to make that word a living thing in the heart. The power that is born of meditation on the word of God is the prayer which soars upward to God's listening ear." R. A. Torrey was a powerful man of prayer. That is why he wrote those words in How to Pray in the 19th century.

George Mueller, another mighty man of prayer in Bristol, England in the 19th Century (1805 to 1898), would begin praying by reading and meditating on God's word until a prayer began to form itself inside him. Therefore, God, himself was the real author of the prayer, and God answered the prayer which he himself had inspired.

Garden of Life

By: Wade Carey

"Listen, Henry, please don't be discouraged in any way. This probably came up because it was time for you to expand your way of studying the Bible. By no means am I saying that you can't take biblical passages and make an application of them – I'm famous for doing that. What I am saying is that you should also study the context of the chapter, as well as who wrote it. To that end, I have an excellent reference book for you over in my truck. We'll go get it in a minute."

"What book is that?"

"It's called the Bare Bones Bible Handbook, by Jim George."

"What's the book's purpose?"

"It takes each book of the Bible and gives you a great overview. Books like this – as well as the others I've given you – aren't intended to replace the Bible. Instead, they are designed to enhance your study of it. Anyway, you'll see what I mean when I give this new book to you."

Children of Tender Love

By: Jody Bennett

In Jinja, Uganda is the Tender Love Orphanage administered by Mr. Dominic Muggaga. There

Mr. Dominic Muggaga director of Tender Love are precious few people in the alliance who help support these children. The Battlefield News brings you closer to some of those children and urges you to call the Battlefield News if you will do even the smallest thing to help them – (706)499-7976. There are things that may be junk to you, things you would give to the Goodwill, which, by the way, is not even a nonprofit organization any more, things you might even throw away, that would not be junk to them. There is a container at Unity on a

Mrs. Rachael Muggaga director of Tender Love Mission where you can bring those things that we may send to these children. It will not be there much longer, however, as we must send it. Act now, please.

There are many orphaned children at the Tender Love Orphanage in Jinja, Uganda. The director of the orphanage, at our request has sent us profiles on some of the children.

Travor is new to the Tender Love Family

Travor is four-years-old and he stammers. He lost his mother while he was still a baby. Since his mother left no information about who Travor's father is, contacting the man is highly unlikely. His grand mother is blind, and therefore, is unable to take care of the lad; she needs help herself. So with this touching story, our hearts were moved to rescue him.

All Lives Matter (Part Four)

By: Cameron Webb

Battlefield News Note: In the October Issue we published a letter from an incarcerated brother in Christ. The following is the fourth part of a teaching he presented to other believing inmates at Walker State Prison.

Mat 25:31-46, "When the son of man comes in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All nations (in the Greek, the word is ethnos or ethnic groups of people, here translated as 'nations') will be gathered before him, and he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats... ..sheep on his right hand, but the goats on his left. Then the king (Yeshua) will say... ..come you blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared... ..for I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you took me in; I was naked and you clothed me; I was sick and you visited me; I was in prison and you came to me."

"Then the righteous will answer him saying, 'when...?' The king will answer and say to them, 'in as much as you did it to one of these my brethren, you did it to me...' ...Then he will also say to those on the left, 'depart from me you cursed, into the everlasting fire... ..for I was hungry and... ..you did not do it to one of these, you did not do it to me...' ...into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

Laodicea

By: Greg Brockman

Greg Brockman

I wrote this in 2016: As I watch the nation slide into the abyss of communism, Islam and moral decay I know without a doubt that the problem with America is in the church. The church is in decline across the nation. Motivational speaking has replaced gospel preaching. "Have it all now" has replaced "lay up for yourselves treasures in Heaven." If I were alone in seeing this I would never say a word, but here are some folks that see the problem as well: Dr. B. R. Lakin estimated that 75% [of church members] are lost. W. A. Criswell would be surprised to see even 25% of his church members in Heaven. Dr. Bob Gray, longtime pastor of the prestigious Trinity Baptist Church of Jacksonville, Florida, once said that probably 75% of those he baptized were not saved. Billy Graham puts the figure at 85% while A. W. Tozer and Southern Baptist consultant Jim Elliff raise it to 90%. While the church gets more technical and more marketing savvy, while the church puts on rock shows and light shows, while some churches try to revive the old hymns and others try the contemporary worship, we are missing one thing: power. All of our marketing strategies can not compare to the buzz created when one person who has been crippled for years suddenly gets up out of a wheel chair. When Delia Knox (look her up on You Tube for video) was miraculously healed in Mobile Alabama, the church there had to move its services to an arena in Mobile just to hold the people. No light show can compare to the effect had on a family when the alcoholic or drug addict father gets born again and is completely transformed. Some years ago the Lord lay on my heart that "the reason America is losing a generation is not because of a lack of churches, a lack of religion or a lack of programs; America is losing a generation because of a lack of the demonstration of the power of the Holy Spirit." And there it is. While one church bashes another and one minister is jealous of another ministry and they compete like children, America slides into the abyss. Comparing our selves among our selves is like comparing the black plague to the bubonic plague. The American church is sick and there is only one who has the cure. I realize that many think their churches are "the bomb" and so and so and such and such, but think about this: if the power of God were present like in the book of Acts, there wouldn't be room enough to seat all the people that would come. If the power of God were present, there would be no need for motivational speaking or for a light show. If the power of God were present, we would not have to beg people to attend, and wouldn't have to wonder if they were ever coming back. If the power of God were present, we wouldn't need a big name to draw them in. Shouldn't the name of Jesus be more than big enough? If Blind Bar Timeus hadn't realized he was blind, he would never have called out to Jesus. If the lady with the issue of blood hadn't realized she (see pg 4)

When our Titles Become Bigger than our Towels

By: D. L. Greenberg

I have seen too many times in the body of Christ people who get completely bent out of shape over titles. There are legitimate titles and by "legitimate," I mean those things that are grammatically correct (not politically correct). Most of us use them. They are a sign of respect. "Pastor" is a title. There are other grammatically correct titles as well. Titles should mean something. They should show recognition for an office held or a degree achieved.

If everyone has a title, however, titles begin to mean far less. In addition, there are many "titles" that are not actually titles. "Reverend" is not a legitimate title. Yet I see it in writing on church programs and in conversation. Have you every heard, "Reverend Martin Luther King? No! Reverend is not a title. Instead, what you see is the reverend Doctor Martin Luther King. "Doctor" is a legitimate title.

"Apostle" is not a title. It is a very valuable office in the body, but it is not a grammatically correct title. Can you find anywhere in the word of God where 'apostle' is used as a title? Have you ever seen Apostle Peter, Apostle Paul or Apostle John? No! I believe some people actually think it is there, but it is not. It is not a title. What you see is the apostle Paul or John the apostle. These men are actually real apostles. They were not called this in an honorary way. There are real apostles, but there are also many who claim that, but are not. It is beyond the scope of this article, however, to define what an apostle actually is.

"Prophet" is not a title. Once again, try to find anywhere in the word of God that uses it as a title. You will not see it. Instead, you see Elijah the prophet or the prophet Isaiah. Make no mistake, we need prophets and there are real prophets in the body of Christ, but it is a function; it is not a title. Calling someone "Apostle Womack" or "Prophet Bill Johnson" is like calling someone "Mechanic Womack" or "Store Manager Bill Johnson." We don't say, "Janitor John Phillips, instead we could say, "John Phillips the Janitor." We don't say "Plumber James Warren." We say the plumber James Warren."

"Missionary" is not a title; "teacher" is not a title; "evangelist" is not, nor is "elder."

There are people who insist everyone be addressed as "Brother" or "Sister." If someone is not a Catholic monk, then "Brother is not a legitimate title. If someone is not a nun, "Sister" is not a legitimate title. The use of "brother" and "sister," however, is very traditional as is the term "mother" for an older woman in a church, and is a little more acceptable, but not in print. Some have responded that we should call each other "brother" and "sister" because we are brothers and sisters in Christ. My answer to this has always been that I have a real brother and a real sister. Never in my life has either of them called me "Brother D. L." They just call me "D. L." And they are my actual siblings. Are we really brothers and sisters in Christ or not? Then we don't need those titles.

From what I have seen, in many cases, titles tend to be ego pumpers. We can show respect to one another without giving every last person some sort of title. If you have to, you can refer to a person as Mr. or Ms. (in the South, we have always said "miz," whether a woman was married or not).

If everyone has a title, then no one's title means anything. Let's reserve those titles for those people who have a legitimate title. Some examples of grammatically correct titles are Pastor, Chaplain, Bishop, Doctor, President, Secretary (I'm not talking about receptionists; everyone on the president's cabinet is a secretary, everyone who serves on the WBCA board of directors is a secretary; it is a title), any military rank (Private, Sergeant, Captain General) senator, Congressman and Officer.

In John 13:4-17, Jesus wrapped a towel around himself and began washing the feet of his disciples. He was teaching them real humility, not false humility, as we see when people talk badly about themselves. He also told them they must be able to wash one another's feet. Far too many of us have allowed our titles to become bigger than our towels. If the Lord himself can get down with a towel around his waist, wash the feet of those who followed him. We can do the same without insisting that people call us apostle, prophet, evangelist or some other title.

was sick, she would not have pressed through the crowd. One man stood and beat on his chest and said, "Forgive me, Lord, a sinner" and was justified over the Pharisee, who thought he was doing every thing right. If we are too proud to admit we are sick, then we will never seek the Great Physician.

So be it

Read this, Texters

From BFN Oct 2018

We are getting trapped in the phone. It is not communication when people quick text. The enemy is trying to keep us from communicating face-to-face. Voice-to-voice we can do more in ten minutes than with two hours of texting. Communication is everything if we are to be in unity – if we are to carry out the work of the Lord."

Hah?

DL Ruins Everything

By: D. L. Greenberg

This BFN Note is a response to something from the Jan 2021 edition of BFN. It is an amendment to something preached by many preachers, but it is a misinterpretation of scripture. Use it if you want to, but you are correcting people who don't appreciate it. Research was put into it, so you might use it.

The quote was from Is 10:27, "...the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing" (KJV). Many preachers say, "The anointing breaks the yoke."

BFN Note

The first thing that it is important to note is that the prophet was talking to the Israelites, not the Jews. The Israelites (the ten lost tribes of Israel dispersed throughout the world by the Assyrians) were exiled from the Northern Kingdom, the Kingdom of Israel by the Assyrians, but that empire did not conquer the nation of Y'hudah (Judah); that nation was conquered by Babylon.

The second and possibly more important thing to note is that scripture quoted so often that indicates that the anointing breaks the yoke is from the KJV. There are many people that will read no other Bible. It is a bit tragic that it is like that for some, because there are many biblical truths they will never understand. The KJV is one of the most fantastic English translations because it was completed in 1611 without the benefit of computers or hardly any sort of technology. It was translated from Hebrew and Greek into English by a team of 17th century biblical scholars. It is almost miraculous considering what they had to work with.

There are, however, some major translation problems with the King James. Everyone needs to have a copy of the KJV for several reasons, not the least of which is that the Strong's Concordance is written for the King James. The wonderful thing about that is that the Strong's can be used to correct some of the KJV translation errors. The easiest way to overcome those translation errors is to have multiple translations to check the KJV against.

Let's investigate this scripture using some other translations because this particular misunderstanding is very common in the body of Christ.

Is 10:27 KJV: "And it shall come to pass... ..and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing."

Is 10:27 NKJV (New King James Version):

"And it shall come to pass... ..and the yoke will be destroyed because of the anointing oil."

Do you see the subtle difference? The translation is closer to the actual meaning, but it is still not there.

Is 10:27 ESV (English Standard Version): "And in that day... ..and the yoke will be broken because of the fat."

You see we have gone from "anointing oil" to "fat." This is referring to the fatness of the neck of the oxen wearing the yoke because of its growth.

Now let's look at a much more recent translation:

Is 10:27 CJB (Complete Jewish [Messianic Jewish] Bible): "On that day his burden will fall from your shoulders, and his yoke from your neck; the yoke will be destroyed by your prosperity."

Understand that the anointing may very well break the yoke, but that is not what the Is 10:27 scripture is saying.

We Have Work to Do

over again to be in unity. We are also told that sectarianism is a sin. For 500 years, since 1517, Protestants have been splintering into smaller and smaller groups. I Cor 1:10-13 tells us this is a sin. I Cor 3:1-4 concurs. I Cor 1:1-11 tells us not to show our differences to those in the world, but that is exactly what we do, especially on Face Book.

In John 17, The Lord prayed his longest recorded prayer in the Bible. He began by praying for himself, then his talmadim (disciples), but then he says, 'I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will believe in me through their word; that they all may be one... ...in us that the world may know that you sent me.' This our savior prayed to the Father for. How can we say we love him if we do not work for this? We know that we are supposed to preach the gospel to all the unsaved, that they may come to know our Lord. We call this 'the Great Commission.' We are also told to be in unity with one another, to say the same things. I am calling this the second greatest commission. We cannot accomplish the first one effectively without working the second one.

"I could quote scripture from now until dawn about being in unity, but if you don't get out there and tell every pastor of every Christian Church, it won't matter what I quote. There are groups and alliances all over Georgia, all over the US, and all over the world who are working for unity in the body of Christ. In this part of North Georgia there is the Whole Body of Christ Alliance.

What does it take for a body of believers to become allied with the WBCA?

This is a questions we in the WBCA have been asked many times. It takes making the statement, 'We believe we should stand with the WBCA.' It also requires that that church (pastor) make a commitment to work for unity and finally there are eight tenets we all believe (see first column, pg 8) and every Christian church must believe these as well to stand with the Alliance.

Are dues required? No, but donations for the Battlefield News are appreciated, as well as helping other churches and ministries as God directs you. We ask for a commitment and that the body of believers will actually do the work required to bring about unity in the body of Christ.

How many Churches have made this commitment? The WBCA is small for now. There are only 57 churches in seven counties.

Every quarter there is a seven-day revival at seven different churches. Come do the work the Lord requires. If you don't know how, we will show you. Your first assignment is to turn to page 7, get the information and call us.

Wisdom Missed (from pg 1)

Nazarene on the first night of the seven-day revival in October 2020, "joined as a whole. The opposite is division and that is the devil's plan. Eph 4:11-13 says, 'And he himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints... till we all come to the unity of the faith... to a perfect man...' The Lord is the one who gave these gifts to the church. As the body of Christ, we want to be like the choir: in harmony.

"Jer 32:37-39, 'I will bring them back to this place... They shall be my people and I will be their God; then I will give them one heart and one way.'

"Col 3:12-15, Since God chose us to be his people, we must put on compassionate hearts, kindness, meekness and patience... as the Lord has forgiven you, so you must forgive. Most of all we need to clothe ourselves in love, which binds us in perfect harmony."

Pastor Grant Myerholtz of Mt Hebron Baptist Church and We Have a Hope Ministries

"In Eph 4:15 Paul writes to this church in Ephesus about being in unity, 'but, speaking the truth in love, [we] may grow up in all things into him who is the head - Christ' (NKJV). The church is as if it were made of Legos. Now Legos are the spawn of the devil. If you can step on one of these barefoot in the middle of the night and not cuss, you are a child of God. My son has used them since he was five. He is now 15. This little one is 'Me.' Me has been through some stuff, has seen some things. Me was uniquely formed, uniquely made. If Me wants to be better, Me has to get with 'We.' If Me is with We, then Me is not as selfish. When Me (single Lego) gets with We (bag of Legos Pastor Grant is holding), then Me + We = what we can Be (Lego Jeep).

A Lego Jeep

"When you have kids, you do things that you said you would never do. I asked my son how he did this and he said, 'Dad, first I read the instructions.' He reads the instructions so he knows where he is going, then he sorts out all 11,000 pieces. He said, 'I don't rush or try to force them to fit together. The last thing I do is check the floor to make sure you won't step on any pieces.'

"The strongest pieces you never see. They are out of sight. Those pieces on the outside, the finishing pieces, are the pieces you see. Never forget that God spoke through Balaam's ass. When we get back to the heart of worship we will see that Me + We = Be. My prayer is that what I do not be about me, but about him. I told him, 'I will never get in the way of Me and You again. That is when my life changed.

"There is more power in the church house than in the white house. I don't like any of them. When John the Baptist saw Jesus, he said, 'I gotta decrease and he has to increase.' It's real simple. It takes a good theologian to mess it up and make it complicated. All I know is that he saved me and I am different today than before he did."

Pastor Russell Page of Kingdom Realm

"The anointing on my life requires that I grow up. Unity is being in agreement. Can I get somebody to agree with me tonight? Pastor Mary has been through a lot, but she's still standing. Everybody has thought about quitting, but we may not have quitting sense. If we are defeated, in the eyes of the world it is a defeated Jesus.

"I asked God, 'Why are you taking me through this troubled water?' He answered me, 'because your enemies can't swim. How does a python kill its prey? It will squeeze it to death and the process is very slow. That is how the enemy tries to kill you.

"In John 5:7 the waters at the pool at Beit-Zada (Bethesda) were troubled. God said there are troubled waters in this place. I'm not here to have church; I brought church with me. God is here waiting on you because the water is troubled. Did Jesus not take all sickness to the cross? Don't pray that God take the spider webs from your heart; pray that he remove the spider that made them."

David Lyles the minister of Victory Deliverance Center

"God called his people to live in unity with one another." David Lyles the minister of Victory Deliverance Center told the people at Christ the King on Friday the fifth night of the seven-day revival in October of 2020, "and do all things in love. We end up hurting each other, which is ultimately destroys unity if it persists and that is Satan's goal. Let's look at six verses God gave us from his word about unity:

"1: I Cor 1:10 says, 'Now I beseech you, brethren... that there be no division among you...' (KJV).

"2: II Cor 13:11 tells us, 'Finally, brothers, rejoice. Aim for restoration, comfort one another, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you' (ESV).

"3: Acts 4:31 illustrates the power in unity, 'As they prayed, the place where they were gathered shook, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the word of God with boldness' (NAB).

"4: Eph 4:29-30 says, 'Let no harmful language come from your mouth, only good words... that will benefit those who hear them. Don't cause grief to God's Ruakh HaKodesh (Holy Spirit) for he has stamped you as his property until the day of final redemption' (JNT). We can grieve the Holy Spirit through our actions. Let's pray for one another.

"5: In John 13:34-35, the lord told us, 'A new command I give you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all will know that you are my disciples...' (NKJV). He did not say to love your neighbor as your self; that was already commanded. His new commandment was much more difficult: 'as I have loved you.

"6: Col 3:13-14 shows us unity in action: 'Bear with one another, if anyone has a complaint against someone else, forgive him. Indeed, just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you must forgive. Above all these things, clothe yourself with love, which binds everything together perfectly.'"

Rabbi David Otero

"Tonight in unity," Rabbi David Otero of Tzur Yisrael (Rock of Israel) told the people at Christ the King at the fifth installment of the October 2020 seven-day revival, "we went back to the heart of worship and our Father sees us as little children.

"Sister Lydia, my family comes from Cuba and socialism is not just a Soviet system, but a demonic spirit coming against Meshiakh. Sometimes we only appreciate things when they're gone. This (he held up the Bible) speaks of Messiah, not just to the individual, but to the whole world.

"The core of what this is about is unity. We are seeing the body become more of a structure and not just business or service. We have many denominations, so where is the body? Each one of us is part of the army of Adonai, so he will bring us together, but not necessarily under the best of circumstances. In the book of Acts, they gathered in homes under great persecution. Today, still many churches are not open. People will go to Costco or Wal-Mart, but they will not come to worship. They give way to fear and not to the King of kings. We come together by choice, not because we have to. God wants that shalom to be in his body. He called us here to stand and declare the glory of the Lord.

"Right now in the middle of an election and pandemic, the enemy wants to hinder the work of the body. Why is this word so important? It is important because it is the testimony of the Messiah from the very beginning of the book to the end. There's something I found in Genesis.

It is Gen 6:5-7, 'The Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth... and the Lord regretted that he had made man on the earth... "...I will blot out man..." for I am sorry that I made them.'" The Hebrew says, I will blot out the man. This is a clue to the coming of Messiah that he would be blotted out. Dan 9:26 says the Messiah will be cut off (blotted out), but not for himself. When he returns all the earth will belong to him.

"But while we wait for his return, we pray for one another and work to bring the body back into unity. For many of us, especially this year (2020), there are things we must address. If any one here has any doubt at all who Jesus is, come up here right now."

The reverend James Mays

"Gen 2:24," began the reverend James Mays of Sons of Light at Victory Deliverance Center on Saturday of the seven-day revival, "says, 'a man shall leave his father and his mother and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh' (KJV). We need to live together in unity until death do us part just like Adam and Eve, Michael and Jody Bennett, Rick and Neyda Hempton, Larry and Nina Percifield and James and Theresa Walker. When one falls, both fall if they are in disunity. If they are in unity, if one falls, the other will pick them up. Stop watching the bad news, the tell-lie-vision and get into the Bible. A journey of a thousand miles is taken one step at a time. When one part of the body suffer, every part suffers. When one rejoices, the others rejoice.

"In I Cor 12:27-28 it says, 'Now you are Christ's body and individual parts of it. Some people God has designated in the community of Messiah (the Church) to be first, apostles, second, prophets; third, teachers, then mighty deeds; then gifts of healing, assistance, administration and varieties of tongues' (NAB). A big reason why many fail is because they try to do all by themselves. In unification is power. Fill yourself with the word. Jesus died on the cross for our unity too."

Pastor Roger Williams of Inner Fountain

"There is a fantastic story in Acts 16:22-29," Pastor Roger Williams shared with the people at Victory Deliverance on the sixth installment of the October 2020 seven-day revival. "Paul and Silas had their clothes torn off, were beaten and were placed in the inner part of the prison. What do you do when you find yourself between a rock and a hard place? They were in the darkness of the prison talking in the darkness and began to praise God and sing hymns in complete darkness.

"I can't do it by myself and neither can you. this is not a superman job, but one can chase 1000 and two can chase 10,000.

"Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God at around midnight. 'While the other prisoners listened attentively, suddenly there was a violent earthquake which shook the prison to its foundations, all the doors flew open and everyone's chains came loose' (Acts 16:25-26 JNT). When God moves in your life, the devil has to loose you.

"The three young Hebrew men in Daniel Chapter 3, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah (Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego) trusted God. With the presence of the Lord, there is joy and peace forever more. You did not call yourself, God called you. Touch your neighbor and say, 'Can we pray through this?' because God is calling us together."

Greg Brockman, author and former member board of directors WBCA

"This is the ugliest shirt I've ever seen" Greg Brockman told the people at Living Hope on the last night of the Seven-day revival in October 2020. "I told Crystal I had to have it because it reminds me of the way God is. We say, 'Look at that drug addict. He is ugly. We must come into unity about that. We need to set a value on people and things that we regard as ugly. I'm not talking about church folks, but about those who smell bad, those who might have been drinking, drug addicts, prostitutes, not church folks. Alcohol and drugs really steal beauty in so many ways, especially from women. There was a lady on heroine that I prayed over. I came into unity with her mama about her and into unity with God about her. Her mama did not see her as ugly. That was her baby.

"This drunk, homeless man over here has valuable experiences I never had, even beliefs I never experienced.

"I saw a pastor from an alphabet church (e.g. AME, FBH, TMN Church) and I thought nobody could be any further or different from me than he was. But he said, 'If we can't agree that it is wrong to kill little unborn babies, we can't agree on anything.' This black man said, 'as long as the lives of little black babies don't matter, black lives will never matter.'

"We have to see the value in those that are not so pretty or we're going down. In the 1830s the Presbyterian Church of America divided over slavery. The Methodist church divided over slavery and the Baptist church did the same. That is why we now have the Southern Baptist church. They decided they were not gonna speak to each other anymore. Charles Finney refused to go into the south because he said. 'They have slaves; it is not possible for them to get saved.' If Finney would have come to the south, there may never have been a civil war. Relationships change things.

And fell down on his (the leper's) face at his (Jesus') feet, giving him thanks' (Luke 17:15-16 KJV). The man was a Samaritan. He came back and thanked God for making him whole. The other nine may have been Samaritans as well, or some may have been Jews. The bible does not say, but those others did not come back to thank him.

We need to thank the Lord every morning for waking us up, to tell him 'thank you, Lord, for waking me up this morning, thank you, Lord, for the roof over my head, thank you,

Even in the ladies' room

Lord, for the food that was on my table, thank you, Lord, for the clothes that I've got to put on, thank you, Lord that, so far, I live in a country where I can go to church, lift up my hands and praise you. It's time that we stop sitting around and start giving God the praise he deserves. Amen.”

The Whole Body of Christ Alliance

is a body of believers from many Christian congregations, denominations, and ministries that work together for unity in the body of Christ; not all under one pastor, but as individual organ systems in a single body. We seek unity in the body of Christ, not one world religion. As the Bible instructs us, we are to work together synergistically, not against each other, nor are we to be independent of one another. No organ functioning on its own will survive very long.

If you wish to have an article published in the BATTLEFIELD NEWS or have a comment on anything you read in it, contact us. Your article may be published. Be sure to keep a copy of it since it will not be returned to you. Nor will you receive any financial compensation for it.

Most things in this 119th edition are not copyrighted materials. All ministries are encouraged to reproduce all or any part of it for God's purposes.

If the WBCA has not contacted your church or pastor, and your body of believers would be included, we will get to your church eventually, but don't wait until next year. The Lord may come for his bride before that. Contact us.

Those who stand with the WBCA don't make the mistake of believing that to be in unity, we must never disagree on anything. You do not see that even in nuclear families. Nor do we make the mistake of thinking we must all believe exactly the same thing. That will never happen.

We believe that there are eight principles that must be considered when establishing sound doctrine and criterion for unity. There may be a few more, but definitely not less nor significantly more, other wise we border on works of the law, rather than works of faith. They are:

1: Humans are born with a sin nature; all have sinned and without Christ, are worthy of Hell, not fit for Heaven.

2: Yeshua (Jesus) is the messiah, the spotless Lamb of God, and in fact, is God himself, the second member of the Godhead, not a second God: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit.

3: Christ the Messiah was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of a virgin (Miryam also called Mary) and sinless.

4: Jesus (Yeshua) died on the cross for your sins and mine.

5: Almighty God the Father raised Messiah (Christ) from the dead on the third day.

6: Christ will return for his bride at the appointed time of the Father.

7: The Holy Bible is completely trustworthy, for it is inspired by the Holy Spirit.

8: Blatant sin (living in sin) is intolerable and the Community of Messiah (Church) must not tolerate it from its own.

Sassy Mary's (from pg 7)

Perry House the Christian singer and preacher

"This is mine," Perry House told the people at Sassy Mary's before he sang, "my favorite song of all songs. I used to sing it a good bit, but I don't sing it to much anymore because people got tired of hearing it. Even still, sometimes you just need to hear things. I got this old song when I was going over some new material one day. I ran across this old song and it's been around forever. I took this song home and started going over it. It's not a difficult song. I would sing it awhile and I would cry awhile. For me, life ain't been easy; life has been hard. I can say that I have been blessed in spite of myself. People say, 'What are you talking about: in spite of yourself?' The Bible says the we all fall short of the glory of God, that none are righteous, no not one. That includes everybody from the preacher on down. Amen? It say's we all fall short.

Perry in song

"I will tell anybody, it doesn't matter, who the preacher is, who the teacher is or who the singer is: listen to the message that you're given, but make sure it lines up with the word of God. If it doesn't line up with the word of God, you need to get away from that word. Don't use it. Don't repeat it. It's pretty simple. Singing takes place and the Holy Ghost touches everyone, the praise and worship are incredible. The singing will set you on fire for Jesus. Glory Hallelujah!" The Shofar was blown by Pastor Mary Tate. It was a beautiful service.

Eviction Notice

Disgruntled and disgusted, the Prince of Darkness slinks up to the chalet of bummed-out disciples who have made their home in Jesus and nails a legal document to the door:

Eviction Notice!

You are hereby banished from
The House of Fear forever.
With malice aforethought, you have
Flagrantly withheld the monthly rent
Of guilt, anxiety, fear, shame
And self-condemnation.
You have adamantly refused to Worry about your salvation.
Already I have heard one dismal tenant say,
"There goes the neighborhood!"
Your freedom from fear is not only
Dangerous but contagious.
Real estate values have plummeted;
Gullible investors are hard to find.
Why? Your callous and carefree
Rejection of slavery!
A pox on you and
All deluded lovers of liberty!

Starr Phipps brought the worship music.

Starr Phipps has provided the worship music for the seven-day revival many times as well as music for countless other events. On this particular occasion, however, she was in most rare form. It may be the best she has performed. The music stopped due to technical difficulties, but Starr was undaunted. She continued to provide that cloud of worship music for the people to ride on into the presence of the Most High God and she did it a Capella.

The vows of the covenant of marriage

The world believes that marriage is a contract. Hence the divorce rate in America and Western Europe is over 50%. Some have said that it is even higher in the church. This is absolutely

Administering the vows of the covenant

Doc Rock anointed and prayed over the bride while...

untrue. There are people who claim Christ, but do not live a life of worship and service to him that are included in "the church statistics." This skews the numbers. The divorce rate in the real church is closer to 11%. Unfortunately, some of those in the body of Christ believe the same things as the world. It does not help that these same people regard what they hear on CNN, MSNBC and the majority of the mainstream media as true, which it is most definitely not. The world believes marriage is a contract, but it is actually a covenant. Let us examine for a moment the concept of a covenant.

... D Earl anointed and prayed over the groom.

We see in Gen 15 the covenant God made with Abram. Animals were divided in half, cut in two, in this case a young cow, a goat, a ram, a turtledove and a pigeon. God had sworn by himself that Abram's descendants would be more than the stars in the heavens and passed through the halves of the animals as part of the covenant. When a man made a covenant with another man, an animal or animals were cut in two; both men would pass between the halves as they swore the covenant and it was understood that whoever broke the covenant would have done to them the same as those animals.

When we realize that marriage is a covenant, it is much more sobering to think about that kind of physical harm (in this life or the next) for breaking that covenant.

The reverend Rock Shunk presented the new married couple.

Revival Meeting (from pg 9)

Linda Gunter of Love Him Love Them Ministries spoke about what the ministry is doing in Haiti.

Neyda Hempton of Victory Deliverance Center conducted the Battlefield News.

Neyda and Pastor Joseph prayed over the offering.

Pastor Michael Smith won two Christian books for being the best dancer.

At Christ the King, when an offering is collected, the people are expected to dance up to the front to bring their offering. Pastor Michael Smith won the prize for being the best dancer. This night of the 7-day revival is used as a meeting for the WBCA. The discussion began.

Linda and David Gunter of LHLT Ministries
 “How about an alliance mission trip?” Linda suggested. “LHLT Ministries can make it happen. It’s only a thousand dollars plus airfare.”

Bishop James Walker of Holy Bethel and his family seated behind Pastor Allen Stevens of Living Hope and his wife Wanda

“We have been supporting 50 orphans in Kenya without the benefit of an orphanage. I thank Ms Linda for her influence and I see the growth in Uganda because of Jody.”

“Let’s bless Haiti,” Pastor Joseph added, “but let us not neglect America. There are many poor here. Let us not neglect America.”

Rabbanit Kim Otero of Tzur Yisrael

“I believe the WBCA leaders should come together and meet because we are from different places and we do not necessarily know what is going on with each other. We need volunteers for this so we can get the leaders together.”

“We do need to come together,” Bishop James Walker added. “We also need some training because I have heard some pastors and others say things that are not biblical. How much time do we pray and/or study every week?”

Pastor Allen Stevens of Living Hope Christian Fellowship

“One of the problems with church people is that they are unable, or at least not knowledgeable enough, to witness to people. We need a program for this because that is our main job – all of us. We are called to be ambassadors for Christ. We represent Jesus and he did not keep his mouth shut. We need to have a time for all the churches to come together like right now and all the churches go out in the neighborhoods door-to-door. We need to do this at least four times annually.”

Starr Phipps was, for the first time at a revival, with a young man.

“Ms Starr,” Pastor Joseph asked the young Christian Singer, “Is this your husband?”

“No,” answered Starr, “We’re just dating.”

Young people want to date nowadays, want to do a test relationship. It keeps people in the temporary relationship mindset. It is one of the reasons the divorce rate is so high. A generation ago people courted. Courting is different from dating in that a young man only courts a girl he is interested in marrying. They do not go out on “dates;” they spend time together with the young lady’s family – considerable time. That is why, a generation ago, people actually got married before they had children. Premarital sex was very rare.

“Stop dating and marry him!” said Pastor Joseph.

Secretary Jody Bennett of the Battlefield News

Ms Roxanne Wentworth expressed a desire to pursue the mission trip

Hosting Pastor Joseph Essiful-Ansah

“People in my church say the Chinese manufacture things: good things and phony things. They send the real things to the United States and the phony things to places like Haiti and Africa. They sent the real virus to the US and the bad one to Haiti and Africa, where the death rate is about 4%. We are shamefully allowing the Covid to defeat us. We need to talk to God and intercede right now.”

Everyone present prayed against the Corona Virus.

Bishop James Walker, president Board of directors WBCA

“When we get people going out we need to go out in the bad neighborhoods too and minister. When people see that you are genuine, they come.”

“We need to pray against the spirit of pride,” added Rabbanit Kim Otero. “People do not participate in something like that, giving as the reason their church is doing something.”

We are an alliance. Churches are not supposed to just do their own thing. They should not be planning things during a major alliance event like the seven-day revival. If they would check with Rick or Jody they would know when a major event is coming. We are supposed to be attending each other’s events, but most of us don’t and we become upset when none of the other churches attend our event. It has to begin with you.

Ms Shirley Tillman of Victory Deliverance and others came to the front for prayer, after which Pastor Closed in prayer.

seven-day revival, “but how many truths do we have? One! It’s God’s word – one truth. My wife and I come together because of God’s system, God’s government. It’s the only one that works. Every government on Earth is a failed government at best.”

Pastor Mary Tate welcomed all to the Wednesday of the 7-day revival.

She prayed about the transition in the White House because “what comes in the physical is the same as the spiritual. Elijah was silent in a cave; America will be too. But Jezebel was thrown down and the dogs licked her blood. The difference between church folks and kingdom folks is that kingdom folks are marked and sealed. You’ll get what I’m saying tomorrow.”

Ms Theresa sang Make us One. She shared, “we don’t need all these things, these idioms separating us.”

“Gen 1:24-28,” Proclaimed Bishop James, shows us how God created all living things, then he created man in his own image and gave him dominion over all of it. He told man, ‘be fertile and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it’ (Gen 1:28 NAB).

Dr Cornelius Morkeh the prophet from Christ the King opened the service in prayer. Dr Morkeh also coaxed the people present to pray on the spot. He had everyone stand and pray, thanking God for our nation; “Ask God for a smooth transition in Washington. The Bible says pray for the peace of Yerushalayim and this is our Jerusalem. Let us confess and repent. The Bible says, ‘If we acknowledge our sins, then, since he is trustworthy and just, he will forgive them and purify us from all wrong doing’ (I John 1:9 JNT).

Alex Balla, case manager for Goodwill spoke about educational programs Goodwill has for those who qualify.

“In Gen 9:1,” added Lady Theresa, “After the deluge, ‘God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them: “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth”” (NKJV). It was the second time he told men this.

“In Gen 11:1-2,” Bishop Walker picked up, “God did not tell them to go settle in Shinar; he said to multiply and fill the earth. God did not tell you to sit on your pew and sing God Bless America, but to go all over the earth and make disciples. In Babel the economy was very good. How many times have you heard that? But they were in unity. They said, ‘Let’s make a name for ourselves lest we be dispersed over the face of the whole earth’ (Gen 11:4 ESV). What? God already told them to be dispersed over the whole earth. They were rebelling. ‘God bless Shinar. We wanna do it our way.’ God said, ‘Look at these crazy, disoriented people rebelling in unity with one another.’ God’s blessing was not in it.”

Secretary Jody Bennett of the WBCA board of directors spoke on unity in the body of Christ.

Hosting Pastor Mary Tate

“Sometimes, especially when we are dealing with younger people like the Millenials, we have to practice shut-up ministry and lead by example.”

Dr Rick, Dr Joseph and Pastor Mary Tate Dr Rick Hempton, founder of the WBCA, initiated the Battlefield News offering while Dr Joseph Essiful-Ansah, pastor of Christ the King, sang the offering song, Praise God Hallelujah and prayed over the offering.

The reverend James Mays of Sons of Light initiated the communion.

“Mat 12:25,” said Ms Theresa, “a nation divided against itself shall not stand.”

“Mat 28:19,” continued Bishop James, ‘Go ye, therefore, and teach all peoples, baptizing them by the authority of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost.’ Where do we get the power to do that? Yeshua gives us that power. V<sub>18</sub> says ‘All power is given unto me in Heaven and in Earth. Go ye, therefore...’ (KJV).

“In Acts 1:6 Yeshua’s boys asked him, ‘Lord, will you, at this time, restore the kingdom of Israel?’ (ESV). Are you gonna kick the Roman’s butt? Are you gonna kick Donald Trump’s Butt? You gonna kick Nancy Pelosi’s butt? They’re gonna get Israel if you don’t get them out of there. He did not do that because the real enemy was not the Romans, not Nancy Pelosi, Joe Biden or Donald Trump. The real enemy is the devil and the power he has over us because of sin. That’s why they wanted to crucify Jesus – because he would not storm the capital. Was it left to the Proud Boys, the Oath

Keepers, the Black Lives Matter, Antifa, the White Evangelicals? What is a White Evangelical? Will you make a God out of the president? Biden? Trump? God says no! I'm coming down there, boys!
"We are citizens of the Kingdom of Heaven!"

Herman Parks the Bible teacher of Alternative View read John 21:15-17.

First Lady Theresa and Bishop James Walker of Holy Bethel FBH Church were the main speakers.

"It is time for us to bend our knees? V<sub>8</sub> says we will receive power after we receive the Holy Ghost. You can storm the capital, but you have to do it on your knees. You can come against policies and executive orders, but you have to do it on your knees. We do have to prepare for war, but it is a different kind of war. If you can wait at the capital for hours, why can you not stay on your knees for one hour?"

"In I Sam 8:3, we see that Sh'mu'el's (Samuel's) sons Yo'el and Aviyah did not follow in the footsteps of their father, but were corrupt. The elders of Israel discussed it and, instead of asking for godly judges, asked for a 'king to judge us like all the other nations.' Was Israel supposed to be like all the other nations? Only two nations in the history of the world were formed based on God and his principles: Israel and the USA. God told Samuel, 'it is not you they are rejecting; they are rejecting me. They do not want me to be king over them' (I Sam 8:7 CJB). The people fired God. Donald Trump said, 'You're fired!'"

"In I Sam 8:10-12," interjected Lady Theresa, "Samuel shared with the people what God told them the king would do, 'He will take your sons and assign them to his chariots and horses... ..and to make his implements of war and the equipment of his chariots'" (NAB).

"I am neither a Democrat nor a Republican;" said James Walker, "I am a citizen of the Kingdom of God. I did not have any part in electing a president who will cheat and steal and lie, and that is all of them. I get on my knees at election time."

Chaplain Andy Bass of Chaplain's Corner conducted the love offering for the main speaker.

Love Covers a Multitude of Sins

installment of the seven-day revival, "keep loving each other actively; because love covers many sins' (I Pet 4:8 JNT). "The New American Bible says, '...love covers a multitude of sins.' Love covers a multitude of sins: confirmations as well as differences of opinions. It is part of Bible basics that the easiest people to forgive are those people that we love."

Pastor Billy Angel welcomed everyone to Thursday of the 7-day revival at Kingdom Life Refuge in Commerce

"Quit stressing about all that is going on with our government. The church should not be worried about who the President is. The church should be the refuge. The lost people, when they look at us, are gonna see something different, something real. We as the church should be able to give them answers. God wants us to be the salt of the earth. Where's our hiding place? Find your hiding place in Christ Jesus".

Scott Lance the evangelist from Hoschton Baptist Church opened the service in prayer

Pastor Thomas (Tommy) Bennett of Humble Beginnings brought the worship music.

Pastor Tommy brought the deep worship music that stirs people down in their spirit just as he always does.

"There are people that come together in unity to do evil things. It is all the more reason that we need to be united in our hope of salvation and our faith.

"Dani'el could be seen in the book of Daniel to exhibit faith. We could tell from his actions that he was a man of faith. He took action and he prayed. He went to his window every night to pray. He prayed toward Yerushalayim (Jerusalem) even though it had become illegal according to government mandate. He prayed because it was in his heart, because he was faithful.

Former chaplain of the Future Farmers of America, Bryce Bennett conducted the offering for the Battlefield News and prayed over it.

Secretary Jody Bennett of the Battlefield News read Rom 12:4-5.

“For as we have many members in one body, but all the members do not have the same function, so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another.” This is the whole reason we are coming together; to combine our talents, our knowledge and our skills for the kingdom of God.”

“When King Daryavesh (Darius) saw that God had protected Daniel from the lions, he made a decree to all the land and it began, ‘Shalom rav (abundant peace), I decree that everywhere in my kingdom, people are to tremble and be in awe of the God of Daniel. For he is the Living God... ..he delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.’ I speak this to you tonight, ‘Shalom rav, peace and prosperity to you. Everyone should not tremble because our God is the Living God. The kingdom of Jesus will endure forever. It will never end. He walks through the valley with us.

“God’s love and mercy go out to everyone in the whole kingdom. What an awesome God we serve. It is more important now than ever before that we be united, encouraging and helping each other. It is time for us to be brothers and sisters, not just talk about it. If you need help the least we can do is pray with you. The best we can do is pray for you deliberately. Will you be united with me, united with each other in our service to the Lord? He’s being patient and waiting for us for our loved ones. He doesn’t want anyone to perish. Since Jesus is coming back, we need to live the most holy, most godly life we can, sharing the gospel, focusing on God, then giving him all the glory. We need to speak up and speak out and be courageous. We need to be about our Father’s business.”

Prayer Vigil in Hoschton

“The farmer was walking through the rubble and kicked what looked like a pile of burned-up junk and a bunch of baby chicks scurried from it. It turned out that they had been protected from the smoke and fire because they were under their mother’s wings.”

The congregation sang Under His Wings.

The service, one of ten days of prayer, of course, began with prayer followed by worship and the people sang Shall We Gather at the River.

The beautiful reminder

“In Mark 7:1-2,” continued Pastor Dale, the P’rushim (Pharisees), who were the holier-than-thou church folks of the day, noticed that the Lord’s talmidim (disciples) ate without performing the n’tilat yadayim, or ceremonial hand washing, they found fault with them. The n’tilat yadayim was not part of the law, but simply a tradition of the elders, which most Jews observed. The P’rushim were looking for something to find fault with. They had come all the way from Jerusalem for just that. It was the first year of Yeshua’s ministry, but they had already heard about this revolutionary.

Pastor Allen Stevens listens while Pastor Dale sits and teaches before prayer.

First Lady Wanda Steven and Pastor Allen

Sandra Dixon sits with Ms Ellie Cooper

“They purposefully brought this up to Jesus.

In V<sub>5</sub>, they asked him, ‘Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?’

“He called them hypocrites in V<sub>6</sub> when he said, ‘Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written: “This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. And in vain they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men”’ (Is 29:13 NKJV). Jesus confronted this group of Pharisees, telling them, ‘You depart from God’s command and hold onto human tradition. Indeed, you have made a fine art of departing from God’s command in order to keep your tradition! For Moshe (Moses) said, “Honor your father and your mother, and anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.” But you say, “If someone says to his father or mother, ‘I have promised as a Korban (that is a gift to God) what I might have used to help you,’” then you no longer let him do anything for his father or mother. Thus with your tradition which you had handed down to you, you nullify the word of God’ (Mark 7:8-13 JNT).

In those days some would declare their things to be dedicated to God as a sacrifice, even if they never actually performed that sacrifice. It was one of the traditions of the P’rushim (Pharisees). Then the Lord called all the people within earshot over to him where he was confronting the P’rushim and said, ‘Hear me, all of you, and understand: there is nothing outside a person that by going into him can defile him, but the things that come out of a person are what defile him’ (Mark 7:14-16 ESV).

A question at a private meal blossomed into a controversy that got the attention of the multitude. Therefore he called them all over and made a bold public statement, which liberated his listeners and infuriated the Pharisees.

“If you go to Hollywood, you will see a great sign on a large hill that says, “Hollywood.” Jesus called them hypocrites, actors, like movie stars. Natzaret (Nazareth) sat on the edge of a hill like that big Hollywood sign. It overlooked a Roman army base.

Listening to Pastor Dale

“In I Cor 13 Paul tells about love. In the Greek it’s agape, to love in a social or moral sense, to love unconditionally. The whole church is about love. Paul says, ‘If I speak in the tongues of men and angels, but have not love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy... ..a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing’ (I Cor 13:1-2 NIV). Everything Jesus said, he said with love. Besides Jesus, only a mother can call you a viper with love. Paul said, ‘And now these remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love’ (I Cor 13:13 NIV).

“The most quoted version of the Bible is not the KJV, NKJV, NIV or the ESV; it is the ITV. It is the ‘I think’ version.

So many of the things people quote from the Bible are not actually in the Bible: ‘God will never give you more than you can handle.’ Some people believe it’s in there, but it is not. I Cor 10:13 does not say that at all. ‘As a man thinketh so is he.’ Prov 23:7 does not say that; read it again.

“After the incident with the Pharisees, Jesus left the Galil (Galilee). He went to the region of Tzor (Tyre) and Tzidon (Sidon), where he encountered a Syro-Phoenician woman whose daughter had an unclean spirit. When she asked him to deliver her daughter, he insulted her, ‘Let the children be filled first, for it is not good to take the children’s bread and throw it to the little dogs’(Mark 7:27 NKJV). Many people would’ve been offended and stomped off, but she humbled herself and answered, ‘Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs under the table eat from the children’s crumbs.’ He cast the demon out right then. He healed the deaf and the mute and all that came. He told them to tell no one, but they told everyone. Reverse psychology?

“People in those days and even now, people in third world countries do not automatically run to the doctor when they are ill. They go to the Lord. They go to the church, to the preacher. Those people see far more real miracles than we do. In that respect, they are many miles ahead of us.

Splitting up into prayer groups

Dr John Radu and his daughter Abbey

“Pastor Larry Percifield is a diabetic and he stepped on a nail. Pray for his healing and speedy recovery. Ms Sharon Bryan had a blood pressure of 210/180. Please pray for her and for her husband Phil.

“Please pray for our daughter Abbey,” Dr John Radu requested.

“She did not want to come to church,” added his wife Ella.

All the people divided into groups of three or four to pray. The prayer went on for the evening.

One Body (from pg 1)

‘be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind... (KJV)’ Conforming to the world is easy, not studying God’s word, not doing what God says. We need to renew our mind. We’ve been stuck in the same old thing for too long. Today things have changed, so until we are renewed, we are not doing God’s will.

Pastor Roger Williams, hosting pastor, welcomed all to the 7-day revival “Until you get with God in that secret place, you will be affected by the world. If you turn on the TV, you are affected by the world. If you watch a movie or read a book or read any paper but the Battlefield News, you are affected by the world. We need to pray before we go to sleep, ‘Lord, let me spend my sleep with you. Nothing can pull you from God if you hold onto what he says.

Pastor Michael Smith of Victory Deliverance, former president WBCA Board of directors, opened the service in prayer.

David Stroup, Chief of staff WBCA outreach, spoke on the need for people to help with outreach.

“V<sub>3</sub> tells us not to think too highly of ourselves. You only have to hold onto Jesus and you’ll see God bulldoze everything in your way.

“V<sub>4</sub> says, ‘as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office...’ Just because you don’t do what I do does not mean you are not a child of God. We are all one body. Go before God and ask him, ‘Father, let me feel what my neighbor feels.’ We need to carry one another’s burdens; that’s what one body is.

Moneka (Mo-~~neek~~-ah) Dixon, author of Butterfly: the Process of Becoming, spoke on Unity in the body of Christ.

First Lady Sherry Lord Angel of Kingdom Life Refuge conducted the Battlefield News Offering.

“When we are gone, this will still be here doing a lot of good things. It goes to many different states and even many different countries all over the world. It goes and does what we can’t do. I don’t know why anyone would want to read some gossip magazine when they can read the Battlefield News. One lady in Nigeria said it was the only thing she reads because it never has bad news.”

Pastor Billy Angel of Kingdom Life read Col 3:13-15.

“Forbearing with one another and forgiving one another...” Uh oh! We’re in trouble. This is what we have to do for unity. ‘Put on love... ..let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body.’”

Pastor Patsy Sherwood of Arcade CH Church was the key note speaker

“V<sub>9</sub>, says, ‘abhor what is evil, cleave to that which is good.’ Let us do it all with love. I Pet 4:8 tells us love covers a multitude of sins. When you are reaching out to those in the world, talk with them, but don’t camp out with them. Help them, but don’t get into the gutter with them.

“V<sub>11</sub> says, ‘Be not slothful in business.’ Work like Jesus is the one giving you your paycheck. Work as unto the Lord. It’s not easy in this microwave generation. Be patient to those around you, especially the babies in Christ. Get so much Jesus in you that there’s no room for anything else. Talk to him all day until you go to bed and then dream about him.

“V<sub>14</sub>, ‘Bless them which persecute you: bless, and do not curse.’ Uh oh! You can’t misinterpret that. Is it hard? Yes! Is the word of God hard? Yes, but we are one body. Too much of the church has rotten fruit in their baskets.

“V<sub>15</sub>, ‘Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.’ Has the church lost that? ‘I should’ve gotten that, not them.’ How can we rejoice with people if we have that mindset? Sometimes we need to just sit down and cry with them, go through it with them. That’s how God wants the church to be. How are we gonna do that unless we have the mind of Christ, unless we are one body?”

Pastor Mary Tate of House of Hope conducted the love offering for the primary speaker.

“Not only did she shuck some corn, she strung some beans too. God said he gave us the tools to clean up the mess: unity! It’s up to us whether or not we use those tools. God told me to turn off the news, and for three days my life has been better. America has got a mess and we have the tools to change its nasty diaper: unity. The difference between church folks and kingdom folks is that church folks play church, but kingdom folks live church.”

Pastor Roger Williams prayed over the offering.

A lady from Pastor Roger’s congregation, Ms Runnette, asked for the microphone.

“Pastor Roger asked me to help build this church and then God spoke to me and said, ‘Unity.’ That is what I have seen here tonight. Four years ago I was diagnosed with breast cancer. Today I have no breast cancer and that doctor’s office sent me a check for 65.00 and I have not been there for four years.”

“V<sub>17</sub>. Recompense to no man evil for evil.’ Live at peace with all men – all men, not just the one you like, not just those with the same skin color as you.

“V<sub>19</sub>, “‘Vengeance is mine; I will repay” saith the Lord.’ Church folks say, ‘God’s gonna get them.’ We are supposed to love them and God will take care of the world. We’re just supposed to catch ‘em; we’re not supposed to clean ‘em.

“V<sub>21</sub>, ‘Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.’ If we are one body, we need to act like one body. Too often we just tell someone, ‘I’ll pray for you.’ Then we forget about it. Is that person really that unimportant to us? If we say we are going to do something and we don’t do it, we have no integrity. We are just lying. Pray that if that happens, God bring it to your memory. We need to put on Jesus just like we put on our clothes.

“Rom 12:1. God called us to reasonable service. All of our bodies are supposed to be living sacrifices. Is your lifestyle holy and acceptable to God? No? Then you are not part of the body; you are just playing a game. We cannot link arms with the world; we serve a different king. If Jesus is really your Lord, then you are my brother or sister.”

Pastor Patsy opened the altar for all who desired prayer.

Several people came forward.

Vision: Unity in the Body

(from pg 1)

Fellowship on Saturday night of the January seven-day revival hosted by Chaplain Andy Bass of Chaplain’s Corner, “Cornelius, the centurion: ‘...of what was called the Italian

Chaplain Andy Bass of Chaplain’s Corner hosted

Regiment, a devout man and one who feared God with all his household... ..and prayed to God always’ (NKJV). He wasn’t saved yet, but he was devout. How many look like men of God, but are not saved yet? He was given a vision and visions are for those God is trying to get a hold of.

Doc Rock (the reverend Dr Rock Shunk) opened the service in prayer

In Pennsylvania some years ago, some people murdered the daughters of an Amish couple. The couple forgave them and prayed for them. A movie was made about it and a group of Muslims came looking for that family because they had to meet and speak to people who could love and pray for the murderers of their daughters.

“V<sub>3.5</sub> continues, ‘He (Cornelius) saw in a vision... ..about the ninth hour (about 1500 or 3pm) an angel of God coming in to him... “...Cornelius, ...thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God. And now send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (KJV).”

Rock and D Earl brought the worship music.

Daniel (D Earl) Gilstrap “God said we are not specific enough in our prayers, but I am saying we are also not specific enough in our praise. Everybody get out of the pews and just find a place to worship him, to dance with him.”

“V<sub>6,8</sub> goes on, ‘He is lodging with Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea’ (ESV). When the angel left, Cornelius called two of his servants. He also called one of his soldiers who was a devout man, and sent them to Joppa to fetch Simon Peter.

“‘The next day about noon, while they were still on their way... ..Kefa (Peter) went up onto the roof of the house to pray.’ He was hungry and fell into a trance. He saw what looked like a large sheet lowered from Heaven to the ground by its four corners.

Chaplain Andy

“Ps 150:6 says everything that has breath praise the Lord.

Pastor Allen Stevens of Living Hope ran sound for Chaplain Andy.

Newlywed member of the outreach team Jamie Stroup spoke on the importance of outreach.

Herman Parks of Alternative View spoke on Unity in the body of Christ

Ms Ellie Cooper spoke on the Battlefield News, conducted the offering and prayed over it.

“When we were kids, we sometimes pretended. What were some of the things we pretended?”

“I used to pretend I was Elvis,” answered D Earl.

“I put a towel around my neck and pretended I was Superman,” Said Pastor Allen Stevens.

Nina Percifield announced, “A preacher or a teacher.”

“To be a teacher, get you hands free and write a capital J. come on now; I’m 83 years-old; if I can do this you can do it. Write J-E-S-U-S. We have written the word Jesus.”

With this, Ms Ellie went to the piano, asked everyone to sing and began playing There’s Just Something about that Name.

Ms Ellie at the grand piano

“Now we’re going to have a quiz: how many times did you say, “Jesus?” Seven? Yes. What will pass away? Kings and kingdoms will all pass away, but Jesus will last forever. Something we are supposed to do is proclaim! Proclaiming, according to Webster is to make known by announcing in a public place or to publish abroad. My job tonight is to help make that possible. We have a publication that goes to more states than I’ve ever visited. And it goes to many countries. I know that because your generous contributions will be able to get it out. Pray that the contribution that you make will have an effect on someone you’re praying for.”

Five-year-old Trinity Mangiafico read John 3:16.

Pastor Craig Parker of Allegiance Ministries read Job 12:12

“Wisdom is with the aged and understanding in length of days.’ Put on the full armor of God because people will make an assessment of Jesus based on us because we are all they can see. As Herman says, agape transcends the person regardless of race or religion. This is a pivotal time in our country. Many have no job; more than 300,000 have died from the Corona Virus, the world is having to face reality. Therefore they need us to be real and reaching people. If you have some age, you have some wisdom. I remember responding to something because of a thing I heard 30 years earlier from a teacher when I was in the second grade.”

“In it were all kinds of four-footed animals, crawling creatures and wild birds. Then a voice came to him, “Get up, Kefa (Peter), slaughter and eat.” But Kefa said, “No, Sir! Absolutely not! I have never eaten food that was unclean or treif” (torn by wild animals). The voice spoke to him a second time, “Stop treating as unclean what God had made clean”” (JNT)

Pastor Johnny Sherwood was the main speaker

“This happened three times and the sheet was taken back up into Heaven. The Holy Spirit has to correct us sometimes and told Peter to go with the gentiles. Peter went with them to Caesarea to speak to Centurion Cornelius as the Holy Ghost had instructed him. Many people were waiting there for him. How can we not have unity if we are hearing this message because God opened it to everyone on Earth?

“Cornelius had seen the Jews praying at the ninth hour (3pm) and mimicked them. When our little nephews see Patsy and I pray they mimic us. In V<sub>29</sub>, Kefa (Peter) asked why he was sent for and in V<sub>34</sub> he addressed them. ‘I now understand that God does not play favorites, but that whoever fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him, no matter what people he belongs to’ (JNT) It is the big invitation to the Gentiles we see in V<sub>34-43</sub>.

“In V<sub>44</sub> the Holy Spirit fell on them. The Messianic Jews saw that the Holy Spirit fell on the Gentiles just as it had happened to them and the Gentile believers were baptized.

It took the gospel all that time to get up to the Gentiles, but it took almost no time for the gossipal to get back to Jerusalem. In Acts 11:4, Peter explained to the Jews what happened. In V<sub>17</sub> he asked them, ‘Who was I to stand in God’s way?’ The Holy Spirit will show us if we are not doing what he wants. God wants to fill us, but not for us; to give out to others, but we must yield to the Lord.”

Pastor Larry Percifield of Leap of Faith conducted and prayed over the love offering for the primary speaker.

“Deut 25:4 says, ‘Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn’ (KJV). Luke 10:7 says, ‘a worker deserves his wages’ (JNT). I Cor 9:9 says, ‘Do not muzzle an ox when it is treading out the grain’ (NIV) and I Tim 5:18 repeats, ‘For the scripture says, ‘you shall not muzzle an ox when it treads out the grain’” (ESV). This is a love offering and this whole service tonight has been about love.”

Pastor Johnny opened the altar saying, “Those who want to get closer to God than ever before, come up now.”

Now Faith is (from pg 1)

Living Hope Christian Fellowship on the final evening of the January 2021 seven-day revival, quoting from KJV. As Pastor Russell said, we have to stand up. When you walk into a place and everyone is wearing a mask, who is that?

Larry Percifield & Wanda Stevens opened the service with song, while Pastor Allen & Ms Ellie Cooper played keyboards.

Pastor Russell Page of Kingdom Realm opened in prayer.

“My heart is troubled for this nation. We just came through a crazy election. I hope God’s people did not vote for the abortion proponents; it is murder. When they took my Jesus, they cast lots for his stuff. The people in the world are saying, ‘Vote for me and I will give you everything.’ People you are selling out too cheap.”

Pastor Russell with his comedienne daughter Allie (She is just like him).

Miranda Sparks and mother Pastor Barbara Nash of Rejoice Worship Center brought the worship music.

Outreach chief of staff David Stroup and his wife Jamie spoke on the importance of outreach.

“Heb 11:6 says, ‘without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him’ (KJV). So, diligently seek him. Let us come together and diligently seek him. When we do this and so many other things together, there is more power than most of us realize – far more power than when we do it alone.

Rabbi David Otero of Tzur Yisrael spoke on unity in the body of Christ.

Secretary Jody Bennett of Battlefield News “There is so much to be done to get the gospel out. Someone in prison is going to read this (BFN) and say, ‘Oh, that’s it.’ In Uganda there is political turmoil just like here, only so far, here people are not being shot in the streets. Our kids in Uganda are in hiding right now. People are walking around over there with machine guns shooting people randomly. We’ve got to get this (Battlefield News) out.”

Ms Sharon Bryan of Everything Under the Sun read I Cor 1:12-13.

“In I Cor 1:12-13 we see, ‘...each of you is saying, “I belong to Paul” or “I belong to Apollos” or “I belong to Kephas” or “I belong to Christ.” Is Christ divided?’ (NAB). We have concentrated and meditated for ten years. I heard a young man saying ‘I’ this and ‘I’ that. There was never a ‘we.’ We live with an ‘I’ mentality. ‘We’ have to chisel off that ‘I’ and get a ‘we.’ ‘I’ am not the center of all; Jesus is the center of all.

“I see Rock and the rest going out because there is not such an ‘I’ mentality. If you become a willing vessel, God will use you. Get a ‘we’ mentality.”

Rabbanit Kim Otero of Tzur Yisrael

“There will be a Beginning Hebrew class starting on 13 Feb. The cost is $50.00 per person and they will last 13 weeks.”

“Neh 8:10 says, ‘...eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions to anyone who has nothing ready, for this day is holy to our Lord...’ (ESV). They were celebrating the Feast of Trumpets. It was supposed to be a joyous time. Even though their world seemed to be falling apart, going crazy (Sound familiar?) they had just had the things of God explained to them and were going to be in communion with him. What a joy!

“V<sub>10</sub> continues, ‘...And do not be grieved for the joy of the Lord is your strength.’ It was the Feast of Trumpets, also called Rosh Hashanah, the New Year. It was not a time to weep, but to celebrate. The people were instructed to celebrate the feast with eating drinking and sharing. That is what you call unity in the body. That joy he spoke of was undoubtedly the joy that the Lord has about us seeking to be in his presence, but in this context we see that Nehemiah was also talking about the joy that is found in seeking to know more about the Lord as well as seeking to know the Lord better. The byproduct of this is joy. Here the word ‘strength’ means place of safety, refuge, protection. Their refuge was God. They had built a wall and carried weapons, but he was their protection. This is faith and without it, we cannot please God.

“They kept watching the nightly news and watching their world fall apart. What do we do? Do we sit down and watch the news, watch our world crumble? Stop watching the news; the joy of the Lord is your strength.

“God did not tell us to come together once every three months. We are supposed to break bread with one another house to house. Our religiosity has made the intent of God of no effect. Communion was never supposed to be a wafer and a thimble of grape juice for five minutes. It is supposed to be a meal just like the meal Jesus and the boys shared at the last supper. It was a Seder, a celebration of Passover. That is what they were doing in the upper room that night. Do you wanna be healthy? Then take communion. Take it the way God intended: together, a meal with each other and with the Lord at the center.”

Pastor Allen Stevens conducted communion.

Nina Percifield, First Lady of Leap of Faith conducted the love offering for the main speaker.

“Anyone who needs prayer come on down,” announced Dr Rock Shunk, and many people came to the altar for prayer.

People came up for prayer

Bishop James Walker & Pastor Craig Parker prayed over Ms Vicky Ellis

Doc Rock prayed over David while Pastor Allen prayed over little Abel Stroup

Dr Rock anointed the baby

Daniel (D Earl) prayed over Kyle Herndon

Those people who actually stayed all the way until the end joined hands for the closing prayer

Bishop James Walker closed the service in Prayer.

From *Talisman Christianity

By: Greg Brockman

Greg Brockman

Talisman Christianity: three years ago, this was a fresh word, straight from the Lord in a dream. I had never heard the term and asked the Lord, "Lord, what is a talisman?" He answered, "A talisman is like a piece jewelry that people wear to bring them good fortune and good luck." When I looked it up the next morning, I found that is exactly what it means.

Then, I saw some quotes from A. W. Tozer addressing the symptoms of it, the lifelessness religion:

"The average church has so established itself organizationally and financially that God is simply no longer necessary to it. So entrenched is its authority and so stable are the religious habits of its members that God could withdraw himself completely from it, as He once withdrew the Sh'khinah from the Temple, and it could run on for years on its own momentum," Wrote Tozer.

He said "A community of believers must be composed of persons who have each met God in individual experience." He also said, "It is doubtful whether we can be Christian in anything unless we are Christian in everything." A.W. Tozer also wrote, "When true believers gather around a present Christ, it is all but impossible to have a poor meeting... ..but nothing can save a meeting held in the name of an absentee God... ..the Bible was never meant to replace God; rather, it was meant to lead us into the heart of God. Too many Christians stop with the text and never go on to experience the presence of God"

He wrote, that unintentionally, "The Scriptures have become for some a substitute for God. The Bible has become a barrier between them and God. 'We have our Bible,' they say with a certain amount of pride, 'and we need nothing more.' Its one thing to read about the new birth in the Bible and quite another thing to be born from above by the Spirit of the Living God."

We have all seen this in the body of Christ. How many times have you heard someone say that miracles, speaking in tongues and real prophecy only occurred in the first century and before, that God does not speak to us in the days we are now in? Jesus does speak to me; if you believe he doesn't speak to people any more, that is probably why you never hear him. Jesus spoke to concerning this in a dream,

“Warn my people: they are wearing the name ‘Christian’ as though it were a talisman”

Look up: “Nehushtan” in your Bible. You will find that Moses received a revelation that healed. God told him to guild a serpent and lift it up so that people could see it and they would be healed of the deadly snakebites they were receiving. You will also discover that righteous King Hezekiah tore that thing down and busted it because the people had named it Nehushtan and burned incense to it. What had been a revelation in Moses’ day was a talisman in Hezekiah’s day. A revelation in one generation can be a talisman to another generation.

“Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord” (Acts 3:19 NKJV).

Anything we can do without the presence of God involved has the potential of becoming a talisman - a talisman act, a talisman song, a certain way we do things every time. Even the Bible its self can become a good luck charm, a Talisman. We are to worship God alone and never the things of God. We have all seen it; people will worship the Bible, they will worship the cross, the crown of thorns, even the nails. They will worship the altar, the podium, the pulpit and even the church building. Sometimes the pastor is even worshiped.

Expose these things in our lives, Lord, that we may repent.

No more false finish lines! We need God to show up in power (Acts 2-4).

So Be It

Voter Fraud

By: Greg Brockman

The attached photo should be used, not my balding head (LOL).

We know it was a setup. We know there was massive fraud, but what exactly did the Washington crowd think would happen when very angry Americans got to Washington?

Except for the few, these were not jobless Antifa members and supporters. These people sacrificed time from businesses and work, lured to Washington by angry words, hateful rhetoric and accusations of stealing and fraud. The fraud was demonstrated. It really happened and the mainstream media tried hard to cover it up like a cat covers its mess in the litter box. The powers in Washington saw it demonstrated and refrained from any sort of action lest their own misdeeds be revealed.

We the people have been called "deplorable, hateful, homophobic, racist, islamophobic" and now we, the American people are being branded "terrorists." We the people want our country back and we want our votes to count, but the ultra rich, the politicians and the media believe they are America and that we are the problem. The mainstream media spent far more time bashing the actions of those who marched on Washington, stressing the four dead, than they were willing to spend on the militant Black Lives Matter and Antifa members that burned and looted many cities and murdered people simply because they were white. Those people were just "trying to make a difference."

Yet, while we rail against all of this, many of us will still watch the NFL on television and then we will watch the awful shows with the actors and actresses like "the Rock" that come out against us. We rail against Facebook with its censorship, but when will we stop using it?

I remember in the 90s when the Southern Baptists boycotted Disney for its gay pride parade. Many other denominations joined in, but people still went to Disney Land and Disney world. We know that the Obamas are involved in the Netflix brand, but many of us still have Netflix.

The truth is that we are soft. We do not want to suffer. I see this picture and I admire the sacrifice made by these patriots. But I have something for all of the people who follow Christ on both sides: maybe it's time to stop going to the street for all to see and go to our prayer closets where only God sees. Maybe the time is upon us that waving the American flag (or burning it) means nothing, but waving the banner of "Jehovah-Nissi" (God is my banner) in our lives means more. Maybe it's time to stop going to political meetings and start going to prayer meetings. Maybe it's time to stop watching the news in America and start making news in God's Kingdom!

Is it time? I don't know, but maybe.

So be it

A New Kind of Slavery: Communism

By: Greg Brockman

Greg Brockman

It is not my intent to offend, but I will not withhold truth in order to spare your feelings. Men have sold men into slavery since the beginning of time. Africans have been selling Africans into slavery since the beginning of time. They still do it today. The constitution was written by men who believed in God and who risked all in a fight against colonialism. It took time for people to really begin to understand the value of one human life, since for centuries all that mattered was the state (The king, emperor, or other ruler. That also is Communism, Marxism, Socialism and Democrat ideology).

Giving individuals rights is a very new ideology brought about by men and women gaining understanding from the Bible. As John Wycliffe began and others finished the translating of the Bible in the 15th and 16th centuries and it became more available (from Hebrew and Greek into English), the common man's ideals began to change and people began to understand that God loves all men equally. It took time since many people were uneducated and simply had to believe what they were told by the Catholic or other state-sponsored church (e.g. Church of England, Anglican or Episcopal Church).

By the 1850s the people in the North were being convicted by the Holy Spirit as men of God there in the North with a greater understanding coming from scripture, began to preach and stand against one human being owning another. Meanwhile slaves in the South were overwhelmingly Christian and many were Methodists. Ironically, so were many slave owners (now these were primarily rich white men). The North abandoned the constitution in favor of a holy conviction from the Bible. The fervor and pitch of it led them to invade the South in an attempt to keep the Union intact. The South pointed to the constitution and the Articles of Confederation, meaning the country was originally founded as a confederacy and that they had the right to secede from this nation. The South was correct in that. The South, however, had not progressed spiritually as the North had, mostly through preachers like Charles Finney.

Close to 700,000, mostly white men, died over the cause of slavery. (The vast majority of the men who died from the Confederacy never owned a slave in their life; they fought in place of those who had the money to buy their way out, as we have seen throughout history). When this is dismissed by people, it is a slap in the face to all the progress that has been made. Take some time and research what I've shared, there is so much more to the story, much more good stuff. Great Christian men like Martin Luther King Jr. understood this. The current movement is brought about by violent X-ideology based on Islamic/Marxist influence.

Communism is a more ancient system of oppression. Individual rights were first fought for by white, English-speaking men. Then oddly enough, instead of sharing those same rights, others had to fight for them. We have come a long way. The mis-education of the masses and the Communist indoctrination ideals are evident in the violence of today's rioters and looters. Once freedom dies here in America, it will die all over the world. Freedom has a price, but do Americans have the intestinal fortitude to pay it? A more relevant question is "do you?" Or "Do I?"

This is a summarized history lesson, feel free to share it.

Acts 3:19, "Repent then and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord"

So be it

Let's support Building Christian Ministries

We in the Whole Body of Christ Alliance have, as most people know, a monthly publication. It is called the Battlefield News One Army. In it you can read about some of the very worthy ministries around the world and in our own country that we, as an alliance support. One of those is a ministry that has been featured in BFN many times. It is BCM (Building Christian Ministries) based in Blairsville, Georgia. Philip Abernathy has attended and spoken at many 7-day revivals. Under the umbrella of BCM are several worthy ministries, including the homeless ministry in based in Blairsville and The Father's Heart, the ministry in Brazil that rescues children from sexual abuse and trafficking. Brazil is one of the worst places in the world for sex trafficking and some of the stories we have heard from there at the 7-day revivals would make you cringe. Help these kids and homeless Americans. Donate to BCM by texting 26989.BCM. It will take you a website for a one-time donation or a round-up.

Could your church benefit from this? It is 90 minutes of intense coaching, free. Reply to book - Coach Shy Cobb or call (678)707-4073. Let's empower the body together.

Signs and Wonders

Craig Parker has opened a brand new Christian gift store at 32 North Sage Street in Toccoa 30577. Proceeds go to help Allegiance Ministries. Signs and Wonders is open Wednesday to Saturday 1000 to 1700 (5pm). Call (706)282-9833.

Ms Mary's House of Hope

Ms Mary does need our help. She refuses to allow the government to fund her because she knows that they would mandate that Jesus be discluded from every thing just like they do in the schools and everything else they fund. Please, call Ms Mary and volunteer your times and/or funds. That number to call is (678)235-1361. Ms Mary's House of Hope is a 501(c) 3 Organization and all donations are completely tax deductible.

Yes, Hebrew is a difficult language, but take a look at my homework (above). You can do it and it is worth it.

The cost is $50.00 for the entire course (about 13 weeks), but the teacher won't schedule another class until there are at least 12 interested students. If enough people have the beginning class, we may be able to get an intermediate class. Gimme a call. Let's do this.

Bible Knowledge

By: Mateo Raza

I heard Hebrew goes from right to left, unlike Spanish, English, Russian and most other languages. I want to find out. I want to be able to read the Bible my cousin has with the Old testament written with Hebrew Character and the New Testament written with Greek Characters. I think fifty bucks is real cheap for a whole academic quarter.

Now for the answers to the January questions:

The Company of Emissaries

- 1: Sila (Hebrew) and Silas (Latin) I Thes 1:1
- 2: Yochanan Ben-Zavdai (Hebrew) John son of Zebedee.

Speaking of Churches

- 3: The church at Laodicea. Rev 3:15-16

This picture is so deep
If you Understand.

4: Thessalonica, Acts 17:6

5: Philippi. Phil 4:2-3

6: Troas. Acts 20:7-12

7: Ephesus. Acts 19:19

Now for the March questions:

Speaking of Churches

1: At what church were the disciples (believers) first referred to as Christians?

2: Who visited the church at Babylon?

3: What church suffered because of the "synagogue of Satan?"

4: Name a church that received letters from both Paul the apostle and (we assume) fro the apostle John?

When someone tries to get crazy...but has no clue you were a thug before you became a CHRISTIAN

5: What member of the Colossian Church received a letter from Paul to him personally?

Goze estos hasta la proxima vez (enjoy until next time).
