

P12-a_Could School Choice Save America?

Educate our children! But—don't tell them where they came from, why they are here, or where they are going. This is the dilemma that public educators find themselves facing today.

The results? — “Student attacks teacher in the hall,” “Armed guards patrol hallways,” “Drugs rampant in schools,” “Free condom distribution to students 6th grade and above,” “Test scores have declined steadily since 1963,” America lags behind economically,” and on and on.

Everyone knows there is something very wrong with America's public schools. The question is — what has gone wrong, and how can we correct it?
