

- My Lights are on.
- His lights happen to be off at this point in time.
- If my lights are off later then it must be because I parked my car and turned my lights off. One should not infer that they were off at the time of the accident.

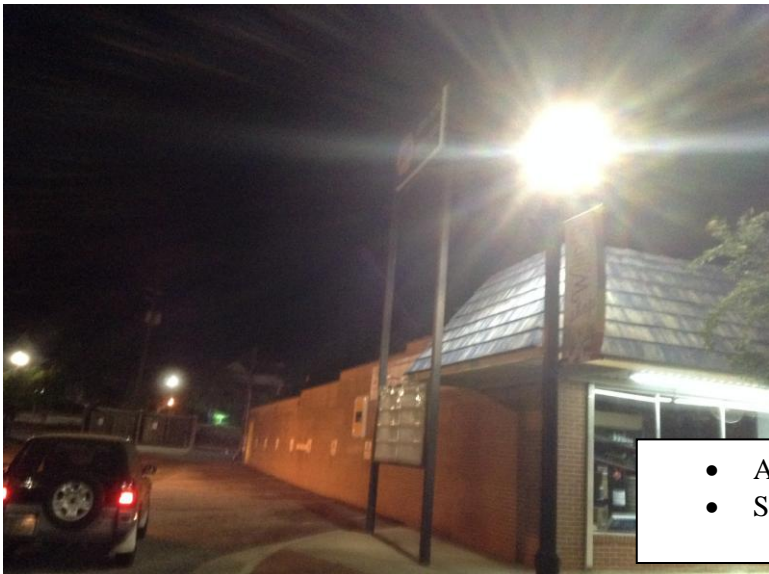

- My Lights are on at this point in time.
- Yet later they are observed to be off after I parked my car.

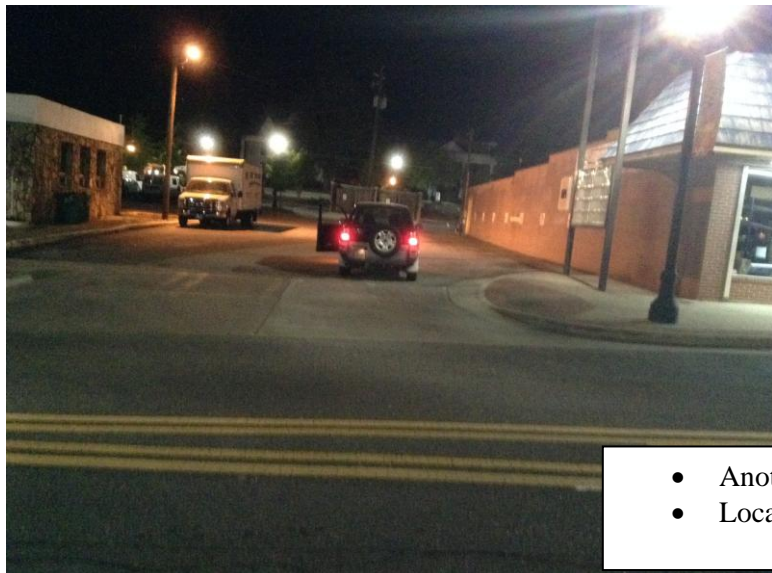

- My Lights are on.
- His lights happen to be off at this point in time.
- If my lights are off later then it must be because I parked my car and turned my lights off. One should not infer that they were off at the time of the accident.

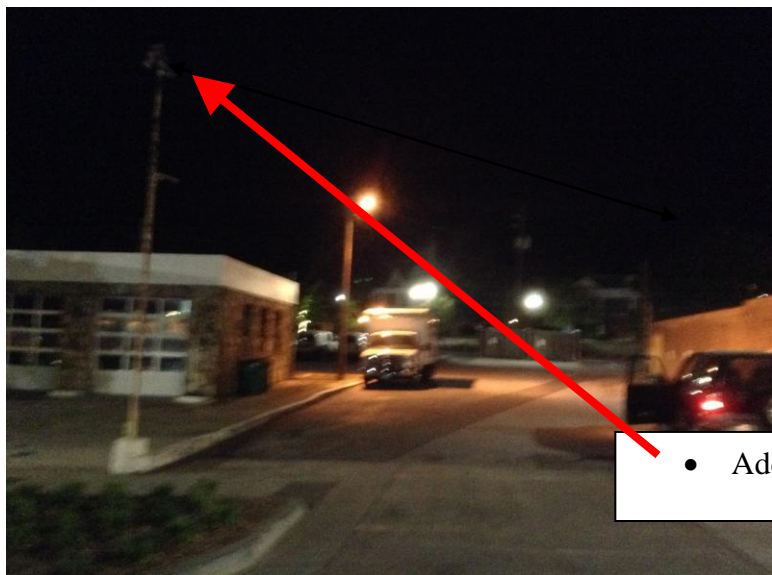

- My Lights are on.
- His lights happen to be off at this point in time..

- Another Day.
- Street Well Let.

- Another Day.
- Location his car was headed

- Additional Lighting at time of incident.

